Not for Adults

Many varieties of soft drinks now come in

For individual drinks, there is a choice between two sizes, "regular," or small, and "king-sized." The regular size generally contains eight ounces, the king-sized bottle twelve ounces.

Not surprisingly manufacturers of soft drinks appear to be "pushing" the sale of king-sized bottles.

There is nothing wrong with this. Indeed, the choice of two sizes of bottles benefits the consumer, who may choose the size which matches his thirst. Even if some customers are persuadand thins. Even it some customers are persuad-ed to purchase-twelve ounces of pop to quench an eight-ounce thirst, any blame which may accrue would appear to rest more on the shoulders of the persuaded customer than on those of the persuading clerk.

The local branch of one chain store, though, sears . have decided that persuasion is not

A woman of our acquaintance, accompanied by her ten-year-old daughter, asked for two bottles of pop, one large and one small. "Who is to get the small bottle, madam?"

asked the clerk "Me," replied the customer. "I can't drink a big bottle."

a big bottle."

'I am sorry, madam, but we do not sell small bottles of pop to adults," said the cierk.

We never cease to be amazed at the ingenuity displayed by some merchants in devising ways to drive away customers.

Which Side Is Up?

"How long should a 3½ minute egg take?" asks an advertisement by the Royal York Hotel,

It provides the answer immediately.

"210 seconds, sir, right on the nose."

We are pleased to have this assurance from such an august institution as the Royal York that our convictions on matters mathematical and culinary conform with the highest standards

d cultury contorn with the Ingliest Standards served in the hotel industry. Unfortunately, we found the accompanying ture highly disturbing. It showed en egg upside-down in an egg cup.

At least, it was upside-down by our standards.

The terrifying thought occurred, though, that it might be right-side up by the standards

. We pondered this for a few uneasy moments and then decided to carry the matter to arbi-ion.

The arbitartors, naturally, are our readers.
would trust no one else.
We shall put the problem as impartially as possible.

Should the big end of an egg go into an eggcup first, leaving the small end protruding as a pointed challenge to the probing spoon, which must then be accurately aimed and earfully manipulated to cover the whole of the larger cavity beneath?

should the small end be fitted into the cup, leaving a larger and inviting top, providing easy entry for the spoon and yielding spoonfuls of diminishing size as the appetite gradually decreases while the meal proceeds?

There, we think that puts the question cor-rectly. You would never guess which side of the argument we are on, would you?

Hard on the Night Shift

Fidel Castro has banned day-time sales of Finel Castro has banned day-ame sairs of beer during work days.

The Ministry of the Interior has set 6.30 p.m. as the earliest time at which Cubans can procure a beaker of suds.

The way the Cubans tell it, it sounds fair Today in History enough.

"In this way workers can buy beer after they finish their daily work, and vagrants and parasties will not be in a position to obtain great amounts of the product," add Bavans Radio.
Given the communits view of "vagrants and parasties," all this appears no more than reasonside and as ensible attempt to deep the workers, on whom the life of the country depends, reasonwith heave and contant. ably happy and content.

It strikes us. though, that this measure is going to make the night shift rather unpopular with the Cuban masses.

A powerful agent is the right word. When-ever we come upon one of those intensely right words in a book or a newspaper the resulting effect is physical as well as spiritual, and elec-trically prompt.—Mark Twain.

"It is true," says Russ Whitfield in charge of wild-fe in the district, "that the fire hazard is great—but we have had dry deschanting season openings before all have come come through with ne great damage re-ad have come come through with ne great damage re-whole me northern fastnesses of the district.

"Give or take a few handred, this figure approximitate of last year," Mr. Whitfield said. "We expecture number of young hunters this season. This is cated by the increase in the number of yeariss when a tighen hunter-enterly course, in many parts of the

And in case you traced in late, to use a radio-tele-vision expression, the deer-hunting season has not been postponed, as the rumer Johnnies had it a week or so ago. It definitely gets under way come the crack of yown Monday morning.

District headquarters releases and stories emanating the various news media, have, or is hoped to have ught home the message of precaution and care with regardire heards to hunters in general.

A general appeal to hunters to refrain from anok-ing while on the ranways and in the forest floors has been issued by the department officials. Smoking, it is believed, is one of the greatest contributors to forest fires on the conservation calendar.

There is no law against smoking while hunting. It what the careless hunter-moker does with his cigar or nerter "butt" after he is finished with the weed, that see the dumage. The same goes for outdoors camp-s that have outburned their merthless.

However, officials are taking no unnecessary chances, set rangers and other department men will-she on the t twenty-four hours a day. Their fire-fighting equip- is ready.

And he case figs of a serious nature breaks out and aiens to get out of official control, hunters will be teripted to aid in fire-fighting, official sources say.

"Hunters can be called upon to aid no matter what circumstances. We hope this does not have to hap-but in case an energency arises they will be called a sasist department fire fighters."

Another warning issued to hunters is the mis-handling of firearms. Most accidents abould not happen. Approximately 96 per cent of accidents involve a violation of ne or more of the ten commandments of gun safety.

To defend himself against most of these hazards, the wise hunder will wear the proper clothing while seeking the sluxive deer or moose. It is an invitation to disaster to wear a brown cost in the woods, or one that has flashes of white.

"Did you ever see a deer wear them?

So, away we go. The hunting should be good despite unseasonable weather and forest conditions. The is wintered well and there will be more than enough to around for those looking for a fast buck.

FIGHTING WORDS:

We know of no other whisky at any price, that can equal the pleasant, good clean taste of Corby's true Canadian whiskies

Taste, and taste alone, is the real test of true Canadian whisky. It must be light, clean and pleasantly palatable, without a hint or trace of the flavour of any other type of whisky. That's what we mean by true Canadian whisky and that's exactly what you get when you "Say Corby's". It's a whisky that is good company tonight and a pleasant memory tomorrow. It could well be the whisky to suit your taste. At least you should try it and compare it with other whiskies. Why not tonight? We can promise you an evening in good taste.

THANK YOU...

FOR PAYING YOUR PROMPTLY CARRIER ...

Collections by your Ontario Intelligencer carrier are timed to provide you convenient service and best meet his school and study schedules. He may begin collections Thursday and complete his collections on Friday, so that he can pay for his papers on Sat-urday morning.

Your thoughtfulness in paying him the first time he calls to collect will encourage him in giving you prompt service. It will save him extra work for which he would receive no additional profit.

It will give him more time for school and other activities . . .

66When you're a builder, you have to be progressive and practical. So I build what people want to buy. I can see the day when most homes built will be Medallion all-electric homes with electric heat. There are thousands now and more being built every day.99

66I talk to all kinds of people who are buying new homes. I find they prefer Medallion allelectric homes, and the biggest reason for their preference is electric heating. They like electric heating because it provides more for their dollar.99

66Flameless electric heating, you see, is safe and is the cleanest, quietest, most comfortable heating system. There's not a good wife in the world who doesn't like cleanliness and I don't know of any law that says heating systems should be noisy.??

Facts About FUNERAL SERVICE Every Family Should Know

ne should know about funerals. It is this is a service which no one wants to buy, and one with which few people will be con-cerned except at infrequent intervals in a lifetime. Consequently, there is much ignorance about funservice which tends to serve as a basis for a ill-formed criticism. This advertisement is, therefore, being published to gain better public understanding of funeral service and its religious

The Modern North American Funeral

Comparisons are odious but this does not stop Comparisons are odious but this does not stop the critics from trying to compare North American funeral customs with those in other lands. They suggest Americans adopt the funeral customs prac-tised in other countries which have little or no regard for the feelings of the bereaved or the re-ligious rites attached to the funeral.

North American funeral service is not a perfect institution. No such claim has ever been made that it is. But there is much to be said for it that is not even hinted at, much less mentioned by the critics. Instead, they prefer to make fun of the funeral rites practised in this country and give big play to isolated, and not always completely founded instances in order to make their points

They go beyond the limits of good taste to cari-urize the funeral director as "profiteers of caturize the funeral director as prolifers of death", as "ghouls", suggesting that as a group they should be banished. They overlook the fact that there are thousands of funeral directors throughout the country who are leaders in their communities and highly respected by their fellow citizens. Such an admission would be too damaging to their case for it to be mentioned!

Thousands of letters are received every year by funeral directors from bereaved families they have served expressing their gratitude for the services rendered them in the time of their grief. Fewer than 1% of those received, are critical of the services rendered, or the costs of the funerals

An ostentatious funera a simple funeral-ar open casket for viewing by the bereaved and their friends—the closed casket—all these are decisions for the family, often in consultation with their clergyman, to make—not the funeral director. A funeral director has an obligation to serve the public as they wish to be served as to the type of funeral, and the price they wish to pay.

Meaning of Funeral Service

Death in all its forms has been viewed with fear by man since time immemorial. Therefore, anything connected with death is avoided by most people until circumstances force them to face its realities. Some, but only a few, among close relathese and friends are able to weather the emotional crisis it creates. For most it takes time to face up to the finality of death, the acceptance of the fact what the loved one will no longer be part of familiar environment.

This is not a new concept. Pioneer work in this field was done by Freud in his "Mourning and Melanchola". Even more recently, Dr. Erich Lindemann, a noted psychiatrist, made further contributions to the subject as a result of his work tributions to the subject as a result of his work tributions of the subject as a result of his work to the subject as a result of his work to the subject as a result of his work to the subject of the subject of the trape Coconnut Toron first in Linden and the trape of the subject o is played by their spiritual advisers, but the ru-neral director, no less than the clergyman or rabbi, has his role to play, too. The wisely-selected funeral director assumes the myriad of responsibilities in setting up the necessary arrangements on bein setting up the necessary arrangements on be half of the family. His counsel can be depended half of the family. His counset can be depended upon to assist from the hour of passing to the final disposition. Everything he does is planned to ease the suffering and sorrow of the bereaved, and to help them pass through the difficult period during the immediate days after death strikes.

Serving Families

nal critics of funeral directors like to bolster their case with this charge that the bereaved are subjected to high pressure sales tactic when the time comes for them to arrange a funer-al. Most families who have been served by established and reputable funeral firms know from ex-perience that such is not the case, Instead, they have a free choice as to the kind of service the wish to select—earth burial, cremation or giving the body for medical research—at the price they wish to pay. Most firms offer a wide range of prices beginning as low as $200, from which famil-ies can select a complete funeral service.

The fact is that in common with many other professions and businesses, funeral directors must there to strict codes of ethics in the condu their operations. They must obey the laws of the various provinces or states under which they opvarious provinces or states under which they op-erate. They must respect all creeds, religions and customs of those they serve. They must adhere to the highest standards of moral responsibility, character and business integrity in maintaining the goodwill of the families they serve, and the respect of the communities in which they live and perform

Funeral Establishments

It would be possible for a funeral director to ortuary out of a tent. BUT, no family would wish to patronize such a firm.

The North American public demands that facilities available to them should be properly housed in appropriate surroundings sue churches or synagogues they attend. They want convenience, comfort and dignity. In these days when living space is less spacious than it was 50 years ago, the bereaved look to the funeral director to provide family rooms where they can greet relatives and friends who come to pay last respects. Private chapels maintained by funeral firms have also been developed in response to many persons who are not related to churches, or schedule their services in church. However, should the family wish to receive their friends at home or have the religious services conducted in the church or synagogue of their choice, this is a matter for their decision.

· Funeral Prices

No one denies that more money is being spent on funerals today. But this is because the public wants to spend more. This is the case in almost every line of service or merchandise being offered to the Canadian public today. The individual determines what he is going to spend. No one else makes this decision for him.

Canadian Department of Commerce figures show that funeral sales lag behind income increases, and behind the price increases of retail and service trades. They show further that operations of the price increases of the price incre ting costs of funeral establishments have risen substantially at the same rate as the rise in costs

In a Provincial survey covering 20,547 adult funerals last year, which was conducted among members of the Ontaylo Funeral Service Associa-tion, it was revealed that the Provincial average

$100 to $399 --- 13.7% $400 to $599 --- 37.5% $600 to $799 --- 36.5% $800 and over --- 12.3%

These prices do not include cemetery charges, or shipping charges for funerals in distant cities. Unpublicated, and completely ignored by the critics, are the many funerals conducted by firms without charge each year because the families have no funds.

Belleville, Ont.

This is another myth being foisted upon the public by the professional critics who are advocating the quick disposal of the dead without benefit of religious services. Surveys show that far from making big profits, as alleged, most firms make less than 10% before taxes, and their average net upon the same of the same less than 10% before taxes, and their average he-profit is in the area of 4%. Few other business enterprises earn such a low profit margin com-pared with the total amount of investment re-quired to equip, maintain and operate a modern

Capital investment comes high today com-pared with a few years ago. The funeral coach which cost $55,000 a comparatively abort while ago, today acost $15,000. Taxes, supplies, wages, repairs and all other costs of doing business have steadily increased, yet families may still buy a toward for about the same price they could in toward for about the same price they could in

Profits have not increased in that period, but the cost of doing business has multiplied many

Clergy Relations

Critics try to drive a cleavage between the funeral director and the clergyman, priest or rabbi by suggesting that the former is usurping their role as counselors in time of grief and need, and distorting the solemn religious rite. Religious leaders who accept this thesis put forward by the critic are in the minority. Experience shows there is a deep and close relationship which exists between clergy of all faiths and the funeral director. The latter recognizes his contribution is chief-ly in the realm of material services for the de-ceased and in serving the living.

Many families arranging funeral services are have no church affiliation. S they ask, and sometimes it is the funeral director who makes the suggestion to put them in touch with a clergyman of their own faith.

But, no responsible funeral director would wish to assume the responsibilities of the clergy-man in this important religious rite. Instead, he works with the clergyman to help and counsel the family in all possible ways. Together, they cooperate in many different ways in making the funeral A MEANINGFUL AND SIGNIFICANT RELIGIOUS RITE for the bereaved.

Thus the roles played by the clergyman and the funeral director are a blending of the practical aspects of the service, as rendered by the latter, and the religious rituals performed by the church

Embalming

Much has been made of the fact that embalming is a universal practice in Canada and as such it is not necessary. The discrediting pro-cedure followed by the critics is simply to under mine the claims of embalming, allegedly based upon considerations of hygiene and mental health. Embaining is important, particularly if there is to be a delay between the time of death and actual interment. Medical experts will testify that embalming is a sanitary precaution not inconsistent with the rules of good health. Further, on the part of many survivors, there is a natural desire to look upon the deceased for the last time. This is not morbid curiosity. Rather, there is psychological support for the idea that it helps survivors to face the reality of their loss. In presenting the embalmed body for viewing— sometimes only in private or a family situation— the mortician must employ his skill in cosmetology. This is particularly true in instances where the deceased has suffered a violent death.

The practice of embalming is spreading and many countries, led by England, are adopting it.

Funeral Directors

In a few short years, there will not be enough funeral directors to serve in this country. Each community, big or small, needs a mortuary. Mor-tuaries have to be accessible to citizens — within tuaries have to be accessible to clittens — within reasonable reach. Whether a mortuary handles a large number or just a few funerals each year, the differential in cost in running operations is not so great as some might think. While the average cost per funeral will callen with volume — there is a point below which they will not go. — there is a point below which they will not go. — the period of the period of the period of the Only is nose made metropolitan centres of the period of the period of the period of the cause of the period of the period of the period point of the period of the period of the period of the server special religious or nationality groups.

Expensive clothing is sold to survivors to dress the person to be buried, is another of the charges made by critics of North American funeral customs. The truth is that more than 80% of the dead are buried in their own clothing. It is rare, indeed, that it is necessary to purchase special clothing to bury the deceas

· Early Canadian settlers buried their dead in a simple pine box attended by a small group of family and friends, so it has been written in an attempt to destroy the idea of a traditional funeral service. The truth is that this may have been a frontier tradition when sometimes the dead were buried without even benefit of a pine box. But this was not true of settled sections of earlier Canadian society. Early Canadians observed some rather elaborate and expensive funeral customs, as careful research will show.

Funerals represent a new status symbol in North America, it has been claimed. True—in some instances. Some people view the funeral as a means to gain new status among their neighbors and friends. Status conscious North Americans also find expression in other symbols as well as in funerals. Such situations may be to a funeral director's advantage, but they are not of his making. He is obligated to provide the type of funeral service demanded. On the other hand, there are many times when funeral directors counsel families against making unnecessary expenditures "Funeral directors provide and charge for all that the traffic will bear", is a criticism which has been repeated so often that few people heed it. Actually, most funeral films have been in existence for several generations. ence for several generations. Many are family owned and operated. They could not continue on a "one time" basis — and they could not attract families, time and time again, to use their serv-ices if they charged on an "all that the traffic will

Freedom of Choice

It is the inalienable right of every North American to have freedom of choice whether it involves the election of a candidate for political office, the kind of clothes he wants to wear, the kind of the control of the control of the kind of a wedding he wants his daughter to have. So it is when it comes to the selection of a funeral. The right remains that of the individual or family to purchase a funeral service of THEIR OFFICE OF AMERICAN OF THE CONTROL OF THE C

Why up and down? Less wear and tear on clothes. Only a Frigidaire Washer's agitator works this way. All Frigidaire Washers work up and down. Not side-

Why not sideways? Because sideways agitators wash by dragging cloththrough the water. Back and forth, Back and forth. Too many pulled threads,

Up and down is kinder to your clothes.

Safer. Instead of dragging clothes through the water, the Frigidaire agitator pumps sudsy water through the clothes. Keeps clothes entirely underwater too. Always cir-culating. Never letting them ride up.

And it works. Give even the heaviest dirtiest denims 6600 ups and downs and they come thoroughly clean. But that's easy. The real test is with your dainty igs. They don't take kindly to backs and forths. But they come clean gently with ups and downs. No drag. Anything you can put in water can be washed in the Frigidaire up-down Washer.

More facts: You can use liquid or powder washing sids. You can spin water out fast when washing's done, leaving clothes barely damp and saving drying time. Still more facts? See your Fridigaire Washer dealer. See his matche ing dryers, too.

Sport Slices ...

RARE, MEDIUM, WELL-DONE By GEO. H. CARVER. Sports Editor

It has been talked about several years but like the ther, much has been said about it but nothing done

Now it has become a reality. And winter sports anded enthusiasts will welcome it with open arms.

Thanks to the ideas and efforts of three well-known citizens a new ski and recreation centre is in the making on the outskirts of the city.

Mesars. Don Templeton, Ian Morch and Freeman Burrows are the originators of the idea and at present have all the wheels of construction in motion. Long before the December moons flicker their winter to over the scene, ski addicts and lovers of other winter tests will have a dream realized.

The new ski and winter recreation centre, the first in sports history here, is located a few miles south of the city just past Mountain New airport, a quarter mile south of Highway No. 14.

"The new area." Mr. Templeman said, "is being developed on a wide blaff with a beautiful view over-looking the Bay of Quinte. It is estimated to meet the obvious need for more and varied winter sports facili-ties, particularly with a view to variety and pleasure for the sailire family.

Mr. Templeman outlined ten features which modernis it and which should meet the winter pleasure require ments of all.

He predicts the centre will be ready with "the fall of the first snow." He said, "like everything else, sking in this vicilarly is "growing up" fast and it is our hope that the new centre will grow with it. In this regard we have poon and area in which to expand and add facilities for such growth."

The new centre will include a wide ski-ing area withou gestion with four or five different traits of varying de and speed for the beginner to the experienced skier

It will have a hosted club house with snacks, coffee warming-up facilities. A separate protected hill a will be provided for use by children, non-skiers and those who prefer sledding, tobogganing, etc.

It will have a new electrically-operated ski tow possibly an outdoor skating rink if interest and de-ad warrants R. There will be skiling instruction liable and lighted skiling at night is planned.

The Isestion is ideal from a winter sports view at since the area is attuated in Prince Edward County ow belt." It is easily accessible through bus facili-is between this city and Picton.

Construction, as was noted before, is well under way. Frails are being cut and groumed. The tow and club-souse are being erected and will be ready for the first

"We are enthusiastic about this project," Mr. Temple-an said. "We have been guided in planning by dis-ssions and comments of persons interested in skiing and the features which, we believe, will appeal to people d families in the city and district."

The new centre, I believe, will fill a long-felt want for ter sports enthusiants of the city and district.

There are a lot of shi bluffs in the city and sur-rounding areas who, in the past, have been forced to travel miles for their favorite winter recreation. And a lot of them have been disappointed with the facilities

Messrs, Templeman, Morch and Burrows are to be mmended for their bold move in providing the new niter sports centre. That it will meet with the ap-oval of those who like the winter outdoors and what provides sports-wise, is beyond question.

By the way the name of the new centre is "The Moun-tain View Ski Club." For further information, get in touch with Don Templeman, 17 Campbell Street; Inn Morch, c'o Morch Manufacturing Limited, 11 Front Street, or Freeman Burrows, 2404; Front Street,

"I'm going across to the bank for a minute"

Wherever Canadians live and work, a local chartered bank is nearby—a familiar, friendly source of financial services. Banking in Canada has been brought to people—as in few other countries—the proportion of banking centres to population is among the highest

Every day more customers become aware that a chartered bank can not only guard their savings, easls their cheques and make loans, but help in many other ways too. They find new banking services being introduced; others being changed, improved or enlarged. For example: personal money orders, ite-insured learns, company payroll plans, night de-positories, banking by mail, safety deposit boxes—the last could go on and on.

The local branch of the bank is the one place where you'll find complete banking facilities—all under one roof.

THE CHARTERED BANKS SERVING YOUR COMMUNITY through full-range banking responsive to growing, changing needs

It depends entirely on the pre-purchase planning that went into the development of your insurance program. Insurance becomes an expenditure when it no longer fulfills the function for which it was intended. It is an investment so long as it is matched to your individual circumstances and requirements.

These circumstances and requirements are constantly changing. That's why it is essential to periodically review your insurance

Trade Surplus Higher

The bureau of statistics at Ottawa has pro-ed some cheerful reading for Canadians. Figures show that Canada's trade surplus for the first nine months of the current calendar year was triple that for the same period a year ago.

Translated, that means that Canadians are slowly working themselves out of the shadow of a threatened economic crisis.
We said slowly, because although the tripling of last year's surplus is noteworthy, the fact that there was a surplus to be triplied would Then Canada was buying much more from other countries than she was selling to them.

What has been accomplished reflect credit on our politicians, both the Progressive Conservative and Liberal regimes referrally and some, if not all, of the provincial administrations.

The was the been accomplished the windstrations.

It has not been accomplished by politicians ne—but they have provided leadership. This has enabled producers to sell more abroad— while our imports have increased at a much slower rate.

Thus our balance of payments problem is less acute, but still remains because, besides the exchange of goods, it also involves such things as continued reliance on foreign capital and meeting the interest payments on foreign money already invested in our economy.

It is probably correct to say that a solution of our balance of payments problem through trade alone is impossible, but that no solution would be possible without the sort of improvement in our trading position which has occurred in the past two or three years.

Doctors' Plight

John Lindblad, writing in the Windsor Star, says many Canadian medical doctors would like to stay in Canada but do not. They cannot ations to.

Each year, he says, several hundred Cana-dian doctors go to the U.S. to take post-graduate work. Roughly half of them never return. By the times their studies are finished "they are so deeply in hock they must go for the big paying jobe."

jobs."

Lindblad tells of one Canadian doctor who wants to be a neurosurgeon and who tried to get into the Montreal Neurological Clinic, but could not do so because it was filled up, with Canadians and many foreign students. He went Canadians and many foreign students. He went to Detroit. Now, after ten years of study, he is earning $350 a month, going deeper into debt

"What's needed is some form of assistance for post-graduate work carried on in other countries so Canada can keep highly trained specialists," says Lindblad.

The provision of such assistance would ap-pear to be a legitimate charge against any medicare plan.

Out meeting the people in his bid for support in the Scottish Highlands, he fell as he scrambled into a straw-filled wagon. Recovering, he climbed up and utilized the wagon suplatorm from which to make his speech.

The incident recalls a story, probably aporcyphal, concerning the last Mich Hepburn when he was premier of Ontario.

One time, the story goes, when Hepburn was visiting Barrie district and was to speak at some rural function, a fall fair or some occasion of that nature, it was discovered that no platform had been provided for the speaker.

Nothing daunted, Mitch spotted a display of farm machinery and promptly elambered aboard a manure spreader.

"This is the first time I have ever spoken from a Tory platform" he told a chuckling crowd. "And that's the biggest load that platform ever carried," retoried some quick-witted Tory.

More than half the countries of the world live under a partial or complete black-out of news, through censorship. The people of these countries have lost a guiding light to freedom — the complete, true knowledge of all that in happening in the world.

These countries have lost their freedom of the press because their governments know that when the press is free and every man able to read, all is safe. The leaders of these countries know that suppressing news sup-presses not just the people's voice in government, but the people themselves.

public education have always been an in-tegral part of our way of life.

The job of making all of the news available to every man who can read rests mainly upon our newspapers. Day in and day out, they are able to report the news completely, as only newspapers can deliver it!

And the people of our nation want not only accurate news, but all of the news. proof: Since 1920, during a period which introduced both radio and television, newspaper sales more than doubled.

To keep up with this demand for news, the newspaper industry has been continually working to improve its service — by introducing the most up-to-date communications and production methods.

So, while most of the world lives in darkness, our newspapers serve as a light of freedom, making a big difference in people's

O') VALUE that one open out, and is send-to the United States, is her young hockey players, (Gelly John) Adams, fermer Detroit Red Wings' eral manager, sold the OHEA at its 16th annual con-tion beneuet in Toronto Saturday afterneon.

"And all of them came and are still country from terms of the Outario Miner Heckey Association and sim-line associations acress the country. I think I speak for the year when I say sincepely, thanks a million."

The former G.M. of the Red Wings was in his usual illant podium form. He interspersed his talk to the ord 453 delegates and visitors with flashes of typical dams humor.

"I should have been invited here a year ago," he quipped, as his sudience reared. "I was then in the ranks of the unemployed and looking for free meals."

"As you may or may not know," he said, "I come from down Prince Edward-Lennex way, where they haven't elected a Liberal in the past forty years. Once they elected two hut one errer reached Parliament. He died from the shock of being elected."

He recalled in more serious vein the fact that this x was the first in forty-five that he had not attended ooksy training camp. "And to an old warhorse like that was something."

In further tribute to the OMHA, he said, "It is sople like you fellows who carry bockey on your backs, lithout you and your efforts, the professional areas said merce have been ball!."

"And we are going to have to rely on you and your duction efforts more and more," Mr. Adams said.

He said: "I say this because the National Hockey gue is undergoing a period of transition. It needs key players for many of the veterans are beginning show the signs of wore and text."

He said it was for this reason the new Central Pro-sonal Hockey League was formed. Incidentally, Mr. mm is the first president of the new pro organization, makes his headquarters in Detroit.

It was formed to produce young lockey players with ofconional potential," he said. "The rules state that the toun in the longue must use ten players under yours of age, and fire ever that figure with the ex-ytion of the gualkopers."

He said the league is producing a fine brand of they and if it is policed right it will protect over 0,000 worth of drafted players.

As Lloyd Pollock of Windsor, said in his introduction Mr. Adams, "there is no danger of the league not being systed properly with a man like Mr. Adams at the helm. fit now every coach and manager knows who the boss is."

Mr. Adams said he had learned with some regret from business session of the convention that minors particu-y in the younger brackets, are not getting enough ice

"I cannot understand this," he said. "For the good he game and the youngsters too, you follows should be all efforts to see that the kids get the hother nees they deserve."

In a pre-banquet chat with this agent, "Jolly Jack" sent best wishes to his many friends in the Belleville and Napance areas, particularly "Toots" Holway and others. He, with Mrs. Adams, were warm personal friends of the late Larry and Mrs. Eggert, formerly of Life Insurance Total Climbs

It is not true that Canadians would be better off dead, but one might be pardoned for jumping to this erroneous conclusion after perusing "Canadian Life Insurance Facts 1963."

"Canadian Life Insurance Facts 1983."

The Canadian Life Insurance Officers Association, in a news release accompanying the booklet points out that at the end of 1962 the average Canadian family owned a record amount of life insurance, $11,900. Canada ranks second of He insurance, $11,900. Canada ranks second only to the United States in the total amount of He insurance in force, and is in first place, ahead of the United States and New Zealand, if the amount of insurance is related to national

During 1962, one dollar in every four saved by Canadians was saved through life insurance companies, it is reported. By the year's end the accumulated savings held by life insurance companies on behalf of Canadian policyholders had risen to $9,500,000,000.

There are some who will argue that this is not an unmixed blessing. The booklet shows that life insurance funds financed 46 per cent of outstanding Canadian corporate bonds. 30 per cent of municipal bonds, 16 per cent of provincial bonds and 28 per cent of the mortgages in Canada. All these investments represent progress. ada. All these investments represent progressing making possible a host of projects, factories and highways, mills and homes, libraries and schools, stores and hospitals, which increase the real wealth of the nation. Still, it is noteworthy that none of these investments safeguards Canadian control over the means of production. quarter of the savings of Canadians is thus shut off from investment in equities. However, this flaw, if it is a flaw may be in the course of correction. Though ordinary life insurance in force has grown, justifying the Can-adian Life Insurance Officers Association in its aman Life insurance Officers Association in its statement that "as an investment and savings medium; life insurance continued to progress," group life insurance has increased at the great-At the end of 1962 Canadians owned est rate. Since the depression, life insurance savings have grown steadily, but by small amounts. Other savings have varied widely providing considerable backing for the life in-surance salesman's argument that the necessity of paying regular premius is a valued incentive to save. Other savings reflect the condition of to save. Other savings reflect the condition of the economy, falling off sharply during years of recession. Life insurance savings do not. In recent years, though, other savings have aver-aged high, and in 1962 there was a really spectacular spurt in these savings, outpacing the sharpest gain ever recorded in insurance savings. It remains to be seen whether, as the result of the growing popularity of group insurance, this trend in the division of savings will continue.

Questionable Questions

Speaker Alan Macnaughton proposed to the Bpeaker Alan Macnatugnon proposed to the House of Commons on Thursday of last week that the daily question period be trimmed to thirty minutes, as an experiment. A casual reading of Hansard suggests one possible change which would shorten the ques-tion period considerably. That is the elimination of questions which are not really prompted by a desire for informa-tion, but which are used to permit members to corress their views under the camouflage of

When members really want information on When members really want information on, which to base their judgments on problems which are the concern of the House, they are not wasting the time of the House but are assisting in expediting the proper conduct of the nation's businesses

Too many questions, though, are really no-thing more than political sniping. The replies are noteworthy not for the information they contain but for the manner in which the enemy's fire is returned.

We really are fixed for Blades

(and every one of our blade roasts is graded Red Brand - Canada's finest beef)

The reason we are fixed for blades this week is because our head meat buyer is a family man. We have never met a more value-conscious individual — and a glance at our meat features this week proves this fact. We don't think you'll find a better meat buy than our blade roasts (blade bone removed) because you get a wonderful eating roast, with virtually no iste, and you also get Canada's finest quality Red Brand beef at the sharpest price around.

Pinch Hitting

Well, it seems that Gordie Howe is human.

There are a lot of hockey men, players, coaches and who will likely be only too happy to give us an argument on that point.

And up until the past week or so this corner was mong those almost convinced that the Red Wing great was thing less than a superb hockey machine, produced for the the purpose of wrecking the opposition from one end of the ak to the other.

Our opinion of him as a hockey player has not changed one lots. He is still the greatest hockey player we have had the pleasure of watching and probably the greatest of all time.

But apparently he is also a human being when it pressure. At least that's what stories out of M Detroit indicate.

Off the ice, Gordie is a gentieman all the way, much along lines of another well-lowed sports figure, Stan Musial. Howe seemed warm, friendly and more than willing to be cooperative on the couple of occasions we

But, like everyone else, he makes mistakes, ever on the ice. The factor that has placed him above other players is that he makes less of them, and for each one he does commit, he comes up with a dozen plays than only he can execute.

Howe currently shares the record for NHL goals with ther great, Maurice "Rocket" Richard. Gordie will break record some time soon by scoring his 545th regularseason goal.

But that is the point of this piece. Howe is hav-ing a difficult time pointing the god, one that may put him at the head of the class for all time to come. These at the head of the class for all time to come. These has total at the piecest time, especially since Gordie will add, who known, how many goals to it before a reciers. Bobby Holl and/or Prank Mahovitch may some day take are not after record but that would be a long time from now wift toe many life, ands and but its votred to consider I at that time.

That In itself is not too startling but the fact that Howe's all-around play has suffered is rather surprising.

He has been described as nerveless—"almost phie ile"—as one writer puts it. But now he, as anyon in his position would be, is feeling the pressure.

According to a story following Canadiens' 5-1 win over the Wings in Montreal last Saturday, Howe was "lagging behind the play" and "he did not have nearly as much of the puck as is his custom." The fact that he had only four shots on the net in the kame and two in Boston the next using an out pro just decent do."

How hinself said a couple of weeks back that he want too concerned about setting a new goals-scored record. But that will a couple of weeks back and things to the said of th

Some of the players say it isn't so. Marcel Pronovest remarks: "Gordie's got over 500 goals without us trying to feed him all the time. He'll get the other one." But out on the lee this line of reasoning is soon forgotten. It has always been this way when a player nears some exerting record and it always will be.

Gordie gets his next shot at the record on home ice against the Rangers Thursday and if he gets that goal, watch out. The Deirolt rink is an old one and we are not altogether sure it will stand the explosion.

The Right Decision

Prime Minister L. B. Pearson has announced that implementation of the Federal Government's contributory portable pension plan will be delayed until next year.

Prime Minister Pearson says that the delay has been ordered because of the proper re-quirements of federal-provincial consultation." Opposition Leader John Diefenbaker says that the plan was "ill-digested and ill-considered" and is "now as dead as a dodo."

New Democratic Party stalwart Stanley Knowles has expressed dismay at the delay.

In the clash of these opinions, reaction is ely to depend upon the political affiliations of a individual. It seems to us, though, that general agree-ment should be possible on a few basic points.

ment should be possible on a lew basic points.

First, it is well that action on the plan has been delayed, because it is essential that such action should be preceded by consultation and agreement between federal and provincial authorities, especially between the Federal Govern-

A Hope and a Prayer

Frank W. Suggitt, a tourist industry expert from Mason, Mich., recently addressed the an-nual convention of the Canadian Tourist Asso-

He told the delegates that large manufac-turers would not be able to survive on the kind of data that is available in the tourist field.

"As it is now," he said, "most investments in tourist facilities are made with a hope and a prayer, with no real indication as to the odds for success or failure."

for success or failure."

A look at the bank books of a number of operators of tourist establishments might provide striking evidence of the power of hope and the efficacy of prayer.

Receipts from public lavatories—the use of which can hardly be said to fluctuate with the economic state of the individual—are unally accepted as a barometer indication of the number of visitors to the town—Mr. Steve Fewsler, Press Officer for Scarborough, England.

Belleville Juniors, the only major bockey attraction in this city of some 38,000 people, are rounding into shape for the opening games of the OHA Eastern Junior Hockey League, schedule set for next week.

While the state of our health has more or less put us t of touch with the local sport scene for the last couple weeks, we are given to understand that the Juniors, der the watchful eyes of coach Ed Plata and manager il Richards, are coming along quite nicely.

The club has been working out for three weeks now and has one exhibition till already tucked under its belt. Two more exhibition games will be played before the regular season opens for them in Trenten next Wed-nesday night.

Belleville visits Picton to tangle with the Mulholland-kyer-Merchants there tonight, at 8.30, and the same o clubs will clash here at Memorial Areas tomorrow evening at nine o'clock ing at the o'clock.

Cash Pinta will likely make the most of these two games and the efforts per forth by the players will have a good effect to be with the declarates about them as good effects and the second of the control of the second of the control of the Richards added that the coach is structure for no non-sease from the players, however, and he expect to see them avoid a tot of tooking benilities the season. "There is no avoid a tot of tooking benilities the season. "There is the no finase paid and the players know that if they get a pensions they, will not have to at them out—and I think they want to play hockey too much to do that." Rich-ards explained.

"We want to give the fine the best hockey we we how, win, lose or draw, so I hope they will give team seme support," he added.

The team manager is also greatly pleased with a ouple of new faces, belonging to centre Grant Hager-ian and defenceman Bob Boudeau.

Boudeau that from Cold Lake, Alberta, and is liv-ing here now with his father who was transferred to this rare with the ECAF. He is a big lad who impressed rail-bins fight from the first practice. Born on October 16, 1945, there is a good chance that he could de-velop into a real find for the locats.

Hagerman is a brother to Glen, who played last y and is again with the team this season. Grant is a smo playmaker and Richards referred to him as a "pleas

Among others who have looked good are defence-man Paul Paquin and Eibler, a slightly built forward by the name of Fleming, and Gary Duvill, when the last-named can get off work to play.

While it was not mentioned, it should be pointed out here that the team is operating on a shoestring and can certainly use all the support it can get at the

Tomorrow night's game should give some indication as to what brand of hockey the fans here can look forward to

DO YOU KNOW THAT:

LIST PRICE is only a guide-price from manufac-tuper to retailer; in the open market if levels off lower than suggested.

COMPARISON PRICE is meaningless unless the items, being compared, are exactly the same in REGULAR PRICE is only a fact if frequent sales have been made at such a price that is, by public acceptance.

DISCOUNT PRICE implies that there is such a thing as a fixed price, set by some authority, from which a discount may be taken; this is NOT so.

BARGAIN PRICE (OR SPECIAL PRICE) implies a better-than-average buy; it is a true bargain if a reduced price or a truly discounted one, during a sale, is somewhat below the everyday fair retail.

6. FAIR RETAIL PRICE is a price based on and the Trend of the open market place. A Fair Price can become a Regular Price if the market is steady. It can be reduced to a special or bargain price on a sale or clearance of-goods.

> A FAIR RETAIL PRICE CALLED BY ANY OTHER NAME REMAINS THE TRUE MARKET PRICE.

Remembrance I

FORTY-FIVE YEARS ago Monday, the "Cease Fire" command ended World War I. On that day we honored those who died to give us peace. Added to that honor roll are those who gave their lives in the second great world conflict. It is not enough this Armistice Day to honor the brave dead of two wars by bowing our heads in prayer.

TODAY THROUGHOUT our world many voices are thundering without reason - and threats, like lightning, break and crash over the people's heads . . . clouds scud along the horizon; sometimes building up to frightening thunder-heads . . . yet the eternal stars are there - stars of Hope, of Faith and of Love, now dimmed or hidden by the clouds-now breaking through with a clarity, brilliance and strength that will not be denied.

MAY THESE stars be seen and followed by the wise men of all nations, and may they light the path to peace, with goodwill in the hearts of all mena warm welcome for their neighbor - and a deep desire for friendship among nations - and a determination to achieve lasting peace.

May This Be The Prayer Today Of The People

Stupidity Sweepstakes

The U.S. convoy which was blockaded for 41 hours on the Berlin autobahn by Russian troops has arrived safely in Berlin.

Khrushchev says that the U.S. yielded and Russians then let the convoy proceed.
U.S. authorities in Berlin maintain the op-this affair.

Khrushcher slaked his claim in the stupidity sweepstakes when he told a group of visiting U.S. bustassense: "Wedenly it must be a test of nerves on your part. When you decided to test our nerves, we decided in response to put our armored cars across the sutobahn to test your nerves and see if you would start shooting or

If the Americans had started something ac-cording to Khrushchev's view, "it is possible you and I would not be here today."

Any tendency of the average citizen to con-template such a result with equanimity is dissi-pated by the realization that in such an event a lot of other people, say a couple of hundred mil-lion, might not be here either.

non, magnt not be here either.

Khrushcher rolled a high score as he diced with death. But the impartial observer must conclude that he finished a second in the stupicity sevepatakes. After all, by his own admission, he only duplicated his opponent's nerve-testing sactics. And a story by Globe and Mail correspondent Gozege Bain, writing from Washington, confirms Khrushcher's contention that the whole stifler was a deliberate test. The convoy, he affair was a deliberate test. The convoy, he says, was sent out equipped for the blockade. It anticipated it

One day in 1961, a young commander of a Berlin-bound U.S. convey, in a hurry to make the trip in the least possible time, got this troop out of the trucks in an effort to expedite inspection by Soviet forces. The Russians took this ras precedent for requiring all troops be dismount.
On Oct. 29 the U.S., Phritid and France is used a statement formally suggesting the following of procedure which had been observed in practice for at least two years. Where more be voluntarity disnoculas for a heat count. But the Allies wanted to emphasize the action on dismounting was voluntary, that doing so did not imply acceptance of the claim to rights by Russian authorities. So a convey with 20 passegners was sent out in twelve trucks with 12 divers and 12 assistants, a total of 44 men in all. Three being less than 30 passengers, the convey commander refused to have his large conveys. But all the country commander refused to have his large conveys. Russians asked that the truck taligates be lowered, as was usually done with small conveys. The convey commander refused. He was following orders. If Mickey Mantle ever blasts a home run completely of Yankoe Stadium, it will be a fitting tribute to a at slugger and a fine ball player.

Mantle is my favorite major league ball player and has been since the day Jackie Robinson hung my his spikes.

Now that we have got to straight, you can see that I am not going to give you an Mickey's tape measure homer back on May 22 this year, was his third in two days. It came in the 11th inning and gave the Yanks a victory, after they had blown an earlier lead. The victim was Kansas City's Jack Fischer.

MUCKEY MANTLE

According to one of the hig town newspapers the ner was "perhably the most predigious smash of his eer and perhaps as powerful a fly as was ever ack in the major leagues."

The ball just missed leaving the stadium, striking the facing of the roof 374 feet from the batter's box, 100 feet above the playing surface. And get this—the ball was still rising when it hit the facade. Another report stated that the ball-looked to be no more than 15 feet off the ground when it went over the infield, rising rapidly.

ground when it went over the infield, rising profelly.

It hartly seven right is call such a bit a "Ity."
A perfesser from the University of Artenou came up with
A perfesser from the University of Artenou came up with A perfesser in the seven of the seven in the seven in the seven
Said professer citates that the buil travelled at 156 milles per hours and that half it resided its pack height, when it struck the facing, it would have gone a distance of Sid feet, or much farther if it had been rising as the reposes any it was.

Mantie's longest homer, according to whoever is in charge of tape-measuring home runs, was at Wash ington in 1933 when the blonds strongboy belied one 565 feet, batting right-handed against Chuck Stobb-Mantie, a switch-bilter by the way, was batting left-handed, which is supposed to be his "weaker" side, when he connocted off Fischer.

The uppermost parts of Yankee Stadium are listed at feet, one inch from the roofs in right and left fields, some 118 feet, four inches to the top of the scoreboard

No man has ever hit a fair hall completely out of mace Sidium, but Mantle has come very close on at sit two occasions, closer than any other of the many nous suggers who have played there, past or present.

On May 30, 1906, Maule hit a hoppy of Fidon Ramos that struck just below the top of the roof cornice above the third decir in right field. The ball hit at just 111 feet above the ground. That blast however was heading sowmand when it hit the faceth, and thus it is not considered to be as mighty a wallop as the one he clubbed back in May of this season.

Mick's 565-footer at Washington is ranked second only to Babe Ruth's (for distance) 606-foot blast at Detroit in 1926. The Tiger, by the way, know all about Manufe too, for well they remember the day of May 1, 1535. In Tankee Stadium when the Yank centre-fielder blasted three round-trippers off them into the centre field between in a single game.

e plays no favorites though, as figures going into 63 season showed, having hit 202 homers in Yankee m and 202 on the road. Mickey has hit 294 homers g left-handed and 110 right-handed.

And then to go with the homer, RBI and batting percentage crowns, he just happens to be one of the fastest men on bases, in the majors, one of the top five fielding outileiders and a great team man.

All this with a pair of bad legs that would have caused most men to have settled for a lawn chair and a bridge deck for their most strenous exercise. Leg injuries have been his weakness sloce be first came to the migors. It his latest operation is successful, we "Yankee "Lovers" are looking for another great year from Mick come 1964.

Need Overall Policy Hon. Paul Hellyer, minister of national dece, has announced that three submarines will be bought from Britain for $33,000,000.

This brought a protest from the management and the workers of a shippard at Lauson.

This shippard could have built these submarines. Shipyard workers, in telegrams to Prime Minister Pearson and other members of the Federal Cabinet, asked whether "the govern-ment is seeking the disappearance of Canadian shipyards, or what?'

The catch is that the submarines would have cost $58,000.000 if built at Lauzon. This is a price spread which ought to give any government pause.

Still, the higher cost might have been worth the benefits, as the management of the Laucon yards contends. To know whether management is right in this view, it is necessary to ascertain is right in this view, it is necessary to ascertain the overall policy towards the Canadian ship-building industry. The workers are right in their demand for a "more precise" policy.

It is useless to keep Canadian shipyards alive, by paying much more than is necessary for government vessels, if the shipyards are not going to be fully utilized for other work.

If they are to prosper, these Canadian ship-yards need contracts from private firms and they are unlikely to get as many contracts as they need without some form of long-range plan of government subsidies. Because of higher form of long-range plan of government subsidies. Because of higher wages and lower output, Canadian yards can-not hope to meet the price competition from

What we need to decide is not whether the government should have awarded the contract for three submarines to a Canadian shipyard, rather than purchasing these ships from Bri-tain, but whether the benefits of retaining a shipbuilding industry in Canada are worth the price which we shall have to pay, in direct government subsidies to anipyards, or the anipping industry, or both, and in regulations restricting the movement of certain cargoes to Canadian

Young Canada Book Week

The period from Nov. 15 to Nov. 22 will be served as "Young Canada Book Week."

The week is really being held for adults, for reasons which will be obviously good and sufficient to anyone who bothers to consider the four objectives of the week.

the four objectives of the week.

According to a release from the Corby Public Library here, the Week is an attempt to make adults aware of: "1. the Important role that books play in a child's Bid—at home, at school, off or children today; 3. the availability of good books for children, in bookstores, in libraries, which give them the opportunity to choose for themselves between good books and bad comics:
4. and the need for good library service to childram everywhere in public and school libraries, especially in the rurial areas."

There can be no quarrel with the Week's But Stupid objectives, but we urge adults to consider the following additional contentions, which are ours, and not those of the sponsors of Young Canada Book Week.

Firstly, the only valid generality about all idren's libraries is that they are better than

Secondly, the fact that many, but we do not think all, public libraries divide their offerings into sections for children and for adults is, at the best a choice of the lesser of two evils. The greater evil would be to accept a demand that all books should meet the general standard of acceptability for children, because children have access to all books. Segregating the children, if it can be justified at all, can only be justified

If it can be justified at all, can only be justified on the basis that it avoids the necessity of put-ting adult minds on a diet of pap.

Thirdly, while good library service is in-valuable to children, the service of any child-ren's library can be improved if an adult in the family will see that justier fare is available. This emphatically does not involve force-feeding the child. Just leave a few good adult books lying around where the child can nibble—in the hope around where the child can nibble—in the hope that he gets hooked.

The happiest day in the life of the real bookowers hould come when he discovers he has been unfailted with gates was nothing to read but children's books, because his crue. Even a little boy children have expoperated all his own selections from the adult library. Only exceptional children will provide parents with this type of thrill—but it is extraordinary how many children will develop omnirorous appetites if given the choice.

RARE, MEDIUM, WELL DONE

By GEO. H. CARVER, Sports Educar

Gaseous Cassius, the guy with the built-in hi-fl. probably will go down in puglistic history as the only fighter who talked himself into two-three-four or five or more millions of dollars.

Win, lose or draw in his first (there's bound to be a secvide with all that tool up for grash) fight with Soony, Listes whom he has tabbed as the "agy bear," the son of a Kentucky cotton-picker, should be able to retire to a gold-ined bounder carpeted with $1,00 Williams (t'm not well enough sequalised with 'em to call 'em Billio."

I don't think for a minute that Clay can cope with the mighty bulldesing fits of Liston—and sometimes I have a sneaking supplien that young Master Clay is of the same opinion, although he may not bite the dust as quickly as Floyd Patierson in his disastrous con-ventions with the champion.

restlies with the champion.

Cley has two distinct years. One to become the heavysight champion of the world at an age when the fancies more young men his age are turning likely towards nance and the other, and in my mind by far the preserve open to construct with haystacks.

It could be that the Louisville Lip lip deep down not quite so sure of the first year, wants to make doubly sure of the second. Hence the clowing, the theoremanks, the eye, the piak and mave codillings, the theoremanks of the control of the control of the pretty girls, the bestulks and last but by no mean fonds, the "peetry".

coax, the "poetry:"

Camp followers and officials of George Chuvals, the Toronsio aller-brawler, claim Cassina deliberately disofuseped a right with their man after he disposed of a non-rater, Mike Defohn, some weeks back. True, the news boys had it that Clay promised to meet the winner, but nothing, I believe, was placed on paper.

see that the present majority. And I honestly slabed, or at least the greater majority. And I honestly slebvet the young wingpermapper has althed himself into elleving he can dispose of Sonny Liston In, eight rounds.

Ills gens of eighth-mound posite Instany included:
Then Clay lands with a right-what a besulfit swing.

And the punch raided the bar clean out of the ring."

highest integrity and ability.

It may seem ungracious for a Caradian to point out that he could have been much more helpful, to organized labor in Canada, to the Canadian public and even to our government, if he had made these opinions public before, instead of after, it became necessary to establish a government trusteeshin

Nevertheless, a realistic appraisal of the situation will suggest that what Reuther is now saying, although not too little, comes far too late-to be of any real value in the present situation.

This "Art" Kick

Two Toronto art dealers have been charged with fraud in connection with the sale of paintings

The case is sub judice. But we have no desire to discuss it. only to use it as a peg on which to hang some vagrant thoughts about art and artists.

In the first place, what led to the general acceptance of the word "art" as synonymous with "paintings" and the word "artists" with "painters?" Painting is only one of the arts, and not the most important at that. (Which is the most important is another field for controversy entirely. Those who regard the proper field of art to be an appeal to the emotions are likely to select music as the paramount art. Those who consider art's role to be an appeal to the intellect will favor literature.)

What is it about the appeal of art, of painting, that comples most of its enthusiasts to seize brush and palletie? Many a connoisseur of literature would never dream of wielding a pen for any greater purpose than to write a personal letter. Hundreds of concert-lovers never play an instrument. But only a few—generally we suspect the best-informed—of the tribe of "art" lovers find it possible to enjoy paintings with-out endeavoring to achieve something themes in the same field.

What, too, makes certain paintings so walta, too, makes certain paintaings so valuable while others, almost indistinguishable, are unsaleable unless faisely represented as the work of another? A poor copy is a poor copy, whether it be of a painting or a statue or a cathedral or a poem. But a copy of a painting which can only be distinguished from the original by an expert, or by scientific tests—surely it is at least almost as beautiful, or as emotionprovoking, as the original. Why, therefore, is k not of some value?

Above al, why is it impossible to say whether some old canvas, discovered in an attic, is valuable or workless, until it is established who painted it? Any competent judge of literature vectural self whether a manuscript was treasure or trash, as literature, without having to be informed of the name of the author. Of course, even trash may be of value in the collections of works of men famous for other books.

Is it possible that many art collections are not art lowers at all, that they rank with biblioms of the content of the conten not art lovers at all, that they rank with bibliophiles, who judge a book by its binding and the rarity of the edition, rather than by the mediocrity or genius with which its writer has arranged the printed words within?

Another of Mr. Wock's conditions is that the Legislature promulgate province-wide limitations on shopping bours, pre-hibiting stores from being open on Mondays, and limiting night shopping to one evening a week. There are some other suggestions. There are some other suggestions — a tax on trading stamps and theatre drive-lax — but they all add up to the same things: less competition for retailers and more inconvenience for their customers.

Sport Slices ...

RARE, MEDIUM, WELL-DONE

By GEO. H. CARVER, Sports Editor A new sports columnist will contribute to the page newspaper starting today. It is a hockey column and gentleman who writes knows whereof he speaks.

He is Gordie Howe, "the greatest of them all," whose brief colorful articles will appear every Tues-day, Thursday and Saturday. I have read some of the articles and I strongly recommend them to player and fan alike regardless of age.

Seventeen years plus of National Hockey League, plus minor and juriar hockey experiences furnish plenty of copy for Gordie. His articles contain advice, instruction, anecdore and story. They are extremely well written.

As a Detroit wag quipped the other night after Howe k the now famous record-breaking "545 goal," he has records than a juke box.

His biggest out-of-play record was that set last season when he banked $37,500, the biggest ever paid a National Hockey League player for a single season. The amount included salary, bonness and special awards for a fabulous seasonal performance.

Howe was four goals off the record pace when he started current season. He was away like Man o' War, scor-three goals in the first two games, and the record-spers began sharpening their epnells.

He needed one to tie the mark held by the fan Rocket Richard and another to break it. Then pressure and tension enveloped him like a shroud. has scored twice in the last eleven games.

Now Gordie is relaxed. The pressure is off. Every time the light flashes over a Howe goal a new record goes into the books.

"Now," he said, after the record-breaking marker, "I can start enjoying life again."

In case you missed it, as the 1963-64 season began, Howe held the record for most games played, of 1,120; most assists, 672, and most points, 1,212; compiled in a career that started in 1946 when Red Wing officials pro-moted him from the Galt junior "A" club. He was 18

Jack Adams, manager of the Detroit Red Wings for 35 years, and the man who brought Howe to the National League, said of his star: "He had a God-given talent. He used it and never abused it."

Adams, like not a few others, raises Howe as the greatest player of all thue. Said Jolly Jawa, "life's great because he is like because he's the deverent utchhand-ler in the game, because he is ambidertrous and cas action with galler hand. He's aggressive. Nobody rides him off a play because he is now of the surreit spatiety and the Three have been tillle fellows who could do some things and hig men who could do some. Rareiva a hig fellow who can do excepting."

Two of the prossless takes in betreft ast lije that city's heckey Olympia Sunday alght and watched the hig gry score has record-rectaing goal. The "Rocket" concedes that Howe is a great player and said that he was glad to hear that the record-breaker was well-canned. "When I from the trecord of Nels Stewart (224), it was a deflection."

Jean Beliveau of the Canadieus, who presented Howe with a portrait of himself-painted by Tex Coulter, ex-Alocetic football-star, says "Howe is the best hockey player Fve ever seen."

Said Bobby Hull: "I've always looked up to Gordie as one I'd like to be half as good as."

Johnny Bower says Howe can do anything with the k... The Leafian goalie's club-mate, Frank Mahovlich, s "he's a team player."

Of Jack Adams, Howe said, "If I hadn't such a wonderful father, I couldn't have wished for a finer man for a father than Jack Adams."

And said Adams: "He's never changed, he's the same sky, quiet kid, the kind of guy you'd like go fishing with."

The dangerous and almost chronic hemorrhage is our balance of payments position is a basic problem now being tackled.

That we must do something is as elementary as the tying up of a bleeding artery.

The automobile industry has long been one of Canadah bis of a bleeding aftery.

The automobile industry has long been one of Canada's big bleeding afteries. Now our government proposes incentives to the car makers to import fewer car components and do longer assembly runs here and export more. This program could in a few years tie up this bleeding artery, and greatly reduce our forcige aventuage losses.

Packed in glass to help preserve freshness of "leftovers"

Yes, now Gerber Strained and Junior Foods are packed in Wide-Top jars with re-usable Quick-Twist caps, to help keep your baby's food fresh even if served more than once. When refrigerating unused portions, caps reclose tightly to protect flavour and help prevent discoloration . . . thus reducing "leftover" waste. What's more, these tight-fitting covers also protect precious food values by reducing exposure to air.

Other advantages of Gerber in glass: you can see what you buy. The Wide-Top jars make it easy to spoon out baby's food down to the last morsel. The large-size jars of Junior Foods are designed to meet a toddler's growing appetite.

Important: Gerber Baby Foods are "custom-cooked" according to their own requirements because cooking times and requirements because cooking times and temperatures vary with different foods. "Custom-cooking" also contributes to the exceptionally fine flavours, true-to-nature colours and unusual smoothness of Gerber Baby Foods.

Babies are our business...our only business!

RARE, MEDIUM, WELL-DONE

By GEO. H. CARVER, Sports Editor

Well, as the man said when he saw the aging downger trip and fall on her bustle, you never know what's going

Any rabid Saskatchewan Rough Rider fan who would have wagered that his pig-akin punting cowpokes would have plugged the galloping oil wells from Calgary in that gridfore playoffs hastle Menday night would have been fair game for the boys in the while coats.

Even his missus, with Christmas a few scant weeks ty, probably would have rushed him to the office of nearest head-shrinker.

Any you couldn't blame her.

For hadn't the alert defensive remuds of the Stam-ers cut the cinches of the Riders in the first game of sent them wandering aimlessly home, talls splitting, with a 25-point deficit cluttering up their anddis-

Then It happen

Monday night the Regina cocoon after walled in the depths of defect and praying for a comed miracle emerged a brilliant butterify of victory, we football Canada, particularly the western confere recled from the impact of the impossible.

The mesthetic of defeat alumped the Calgarians into the lethargy of despair. The 25-point spread had looked like an open sessme to the western finals against the rushing British Columbia Lions.

The brilliant comeback of the Riders had the best lootball diagnosticians of the country in a tixty... It still has them in a probing date.

The big question is what sert of football virus infiltrated the velus of a "lowly team of easterfe" and transformed them into a corral of lunger, gridpokes who hughed in the teeth of elimination and carried for them the honor of staring the greatest comessed perhaps in the history of Canadian football.

And darkening the humlished of the Sumpeters was the fact that spearheading the windstone of the Sumpeters was the fact that spearheading the windstuning possess braked by Sheriff Bob Shiw were two pickin wrang-lers cut from the corral of the Ottawa Boogh Riflers, and the Control of the Con

Lancaster was fantastic. He fired 45 passes, com-pleting 26 for a fabulous 422 yardage Cohee and Bu-chanan each scored twice.

The dark curtain of defeat slowly enveloping the Stampeders as the miracle game were to list close and at seffect on the far westerners. A field goal in the dying minutes failled to split the posts. A quick the drift of the third of the drift of the dr

Regins went wild. The Rough Rider celebrans staged a collective party that, it is said, pailed VJ Day. Let Vancouver have its Grey Cup Day, game, parade and winoopee. The Regins gang tossed a wingding that to them could force the "Big Day" celebrations into the anti-

And now for the far west Caesar Dave Skrien and his cophungry B.C. Lions. The Riders will not be lossed lightly to the Pacific Coast gladiators in the battles for Western Jinais classics by the critics.

There are some who will say the mighty effort of the Rough Riders in their history-making resurgence was a flash in the pan. But the fact remains, the potential is there and whether the Saskya can repeat is a matter of "walt and see."

Minority Problem

Nick Mandsiuk, Conservative M.P. for Mar-quette, Manitoba, says that the royal commission on bilingualism and biculturalism might "retard or even destroy the concept of a strong, healthy Canadian race."

On the face of it, this is nonsense. On the face of it this is nonsense. There is no Canadian race—and probably never will be, unless intermarriage between our country's multitude of races over many generations produces an unexpectedly unique amalgam.

What is really worrying Mr. Manziuk, though, makes much better sense and he shares his misgivings with many others of his own racial extraction. Ukrainian, and with those from several other ethnic groups.

These groups fear a country in which two cultures and two languages, French and English, ere given equal status from coast to coast. Inevitably, they argue, this will relegate all other languages and cultures to a second-class wo attitudes on language and culture are theoretically possible in a multi-racial country. One conception of the best organization of such a nation is the use of the 'melting pot.' A newcomer embraces the language of the majority. This is considered the traditional approach of the U.S., and so it is but it was a policy which was only instituted after the Eng-lish-speaking people became a majority. Other-wise the language of the U.S. would be some form

"The melting pot" approach sidesteps a lot of problems. It also discards many opportuni-ties. Admirable features of other cultures are ignored, or relatined but distorted.

Had the "melting pot" theory been adopted in Canada, this country would be French-speakin canada, uns country would be French-speak-ing from coast to coast. But, more one may be sure from pride of race and right of conquest than in appreciation of the rich possibilities inin the maintenance of two cultures, the lting pot" theory never achieved general "melting pot" acceptance in Canada. enough to permit the French to retain by right what they would almost certainly have kept in any case, their own culture and their own lan-guage. But English culture and the English language co-existed with the French and eventbecame dominant

Most of the later immigrants, from other countries besides France and the British Isles, were "melted" into the English culture, rather than the French. Now, though, that French speakthan the French. Now, though, that French speak-ing Canadians want equal recognition with Eng-lish-speaking Canadians all across Canada, many people like Mr. Manziuk, from ether ethnic groups see this as a demand for special pivil-eges, and either oppose it, or want equal treat-

Canada cannot possibly be multi-lingual. But there is no reason why it could not be in large measure multi-cultural, and Canadians in general would be the richer for such a situation.

It is bilingualism, not biculturalism, which It is bilingualism, not biculturalism, which is the real stumbling block. Here certain facts ought to se recognized. There are so many Freich-speaking Canadians, and they are so heavily concentrated in certain parts of Canada in Quebec and in some areas of New Brunswick and Oniario, that it is absurd to argue they could be compared to the control of Ukrainians in Winnipeg or the mushrooming colony of Italians in Toronto.

English is a world language, and will remain so. If anything, the claim of French to similar status has been strengthened, rather than weakstatus has been strengthened, rather than weak-ened, by recent world developments, including the establishment of independent African states where French is at least the language of offic-ialdom, if not in general everyday use. It is a proven fact that no child has any difficulty in acquiring fluency in two languages, if given the opportunity to do so early in life. The ability to speak a second language never hurt anvone

Let us accept bilingualism and let the various cultures, all of them take their chances.

People who live on the road, the vagabonds and drifters, are of every creed and denomina-tion, to start with; and after a few years on the road you find that each one still holds to his or her original beliefs, but plus one extra factor: or her original benefs, but plus one extra factor;

Sport Slices ...

RARE, MEDIUM, WELL-DONE By GEO. H. CARVER, Sports Editor

They are awkward, sometimes to the point of clumainess. Chubby arms reach for invisible support. Sometimes one falls, but with no resulting physical damage. The distance lessens the injury hazard.

Applechecked faces are flushed with the glow of excitement and exercise. They wobble sometimes on uncertain feet. But nearby are helping hands. Bravely they start again trying to control the funny things they wear on their foot.

They are the youngest proteges of the Quinte Figure Skating Cinb. They are the "bables" from three years up, learning the first stances of what, for a lot of them, will develop into the poeiry of skating me-

You'll see them every Monday, Wednesday and Satur-day afternoons at Memorial Arena under the watchful, dis-cerning eyes of professional instructors and the sideline attention of fond parents.

Brop in the arena any one of these afternoons and you'll see the ladder steps of progress of these young-sters. Some of them are skating veterans at ten year-we' ace. Not finished, ser truly polithed as yet, but steadily developing the intricacies and difficult motions of this anding sport

Go on up. You'll note the grace and beauty of teen-age girls. You'll see the young men not yet in their twentles. You'll see them in "ingides" and "pairs." You'll see them under the guidance of the professional instructors, kees, alert, eager to learn, all with a marked devotion to practice.

Then there is the voting-plus age class. This ranges om the early twenties to the lithe-limbed athletes and me with the distinguished look that graying half imparts, see male that is. I refrain from editorably treating on the dispersor ground of the color of milady's half and the cret that a glimpse at a birth certificate would divulge.

But on the whole, the current senson is what ap-pears to be another milestone on the road of hard work and success that has marked the efforts of the Quinte Skating Club, Ie, these many years.

During the past, in fact since the club's inception, its sonal efforts along training and instructional lines, have a climaxed with colorful ice spectaculars. These packaged extraorgames not only give the public two evenings of estimating entertainment, but reveal in performance and production, the results achieved through the hard work of professionals and

The training of the east, the preparation and pre-ction of an see show that involves some 100-plus per-mers of all ages and degrees of efficiency, is not any means a "ene-man" endeavor.

Cooperation is the keynote to the success of any ven-e. And it has been no small factor in the consistent cess of the Quiate Skating Club productions.

Excellent professional instruction has been one of the main cogs in the machinery of successful schiere-ment. In recent years the work of club pros Paul Tai-ton and Mrs. Bounie Boundy has left notaling to be desired.

Cinb officials have co-ordinated their efforts in administration, production, settings, costumery and other phases of activity necessary to success.

Club president Dr. William Beattle, who guided the club to its fine achievements last year, again heads the club and is well on the way to another seasonal success.

The club skates the time evenings mentioned from 1.38 to 7.45, covering the phases of skating figures, free skating and dances. Its enrollment of 100 is comparable to that of last year. Those of any age destring to skate with the club can contact the pros or officials in charge during the skating sensions.

Dr. Beattie says plans for the annual carnival are under . It is scheduled for March 20 and 21. HOCKEY STANDINGS cuts—for the entire life of the treat.

Continued improvements in materials and workmankip which lead to improved quality and value, make it possible for Goodyear to once again lead the industry in customer service. This new guarantee is backed by the more than 80,000 Goodyear dealers in Canada and the United States.

SO,000 GOOGYPER GERERS IN GRADES and the OWNER OFFICE AND WHAT does this new guarantee meant to you'll in three words . . . worry-free driving. If you have any kind of trouble, anywhere, the nearest Goodysar dealer (could be thousands of miles away from where you bought your tires)

What does this mean if you are on a trip? Sure you checked your time before you left, but the interpected is always hap-pening. Praviously the trouble could ruin your weation. Now, you are protected.

Wherever you drive in Canada or the United States you're never far away from a Goodyear dealer. He's there to help you anytime you're in trouble. We guarantee it.

This guarantee applies to every auto tire Goodyear manufactures

Another reason why

More people ride on Goodyear tires than on any other kind

All for "Federalism"

All for "Federalism"
In admiration—or dispat—over the fancy sending which went on in the House of Commons the other night, over the Liberal Government's record with respect to "co-operative federal-ism" and consultation with the provinces on joint federal-provincial programs, the average Canadian may lose sight of one important fact. Apparently no party in Canadian politics has any doubts about the destrability of "co-operative federalism."
The Progressive Conservatives tried to ceru.

The Progressive Conservatives tried to cen-e the Liberals for allegedly failing to carry aure the Liberals for allegedy failing to carry out its spirit. The New Democratic Party softened this to an admonition to carry it out "more fully." The Liberals indicated they were prepared to accept auch advice. The Thompson and Caoustic wings of Social Credit for once found common ground in supporting the NYB. found common ground in supporting the NDP motion. Not even one crusty individualist was to be found ready to demand whether it might not be to Canada's advantage if the national government were to act like the master, rather than the servant, of the ten provincial adminis-

It is probably true that things have now come to such a pass that "co-operative federal-ism" is the Off, include by which Canada can present even the appearance of a united nation, rather than a convenient association of ten regional governments

If this be so, though, it is a rather sorry If this oe so, though, it is a rather sorry comment on our past conduct, for this point has been reached without any "great debate" on the respective merits and demerits of "federal-ism" compared with centralization of power ism' compared with centralization of power under a strong national government. Those Canadians, and surely there must be some of them, who believe that the whole ought some or them, who believe that the whole ought to be greater than the perts must now accept the inevitable and hope that the very divisions between the provinces will provide the national government with more actual power than might be expected in the light of the universal approval of "federalize" by all position leading.

"federalism" by all political parties. Perhaps one point needs to be made. Though Perhaps one point needs to be made. Though the house of an American coffire its unquestionably the rising apirt of "national rate and a manager of the state of the property of the state of the property of the property of the state of the property of the our tax montes spent in other parts of canadians, to provide something like equal opportunities and equal standards of living for all Canadians, we might have induced residents of other areas to value their country above their province.

This would not necessarily have been a good ing—but there are those who would not con-ler it bad. For them, it is once and sider it bad. For them, it is once again a case of too little, too late.

Forestry Student Is Not First Girl

Onlario Intelligencer

I would applicable it if you would publish the following letter in your paper.

An article in your paper.

An article in your paper conego Canadá — only female: forcettry student in Not on the forcettry student in Not on the first, which is with the first, which I will not content, is that Marry Rauter is acceptable. must, which I will not contest, is that Mary Rauter is actually the only female forestry student in North America. The is also the first female forestry student. This impression I feel I must rectify, as Miss Therese Sicard of Quobec City gradu-ated from Laval University's School of Forestry in the spring of 1956. Miss Sicard now Mrs. Boutin, had chosen forestry pathology for a for-estry career. However, al-though Miss Rauter is not the first female forester-to-be, I still congratulate her on her choice of a wonderful, but unfortunately misuaderstood, profession and I wish her a successful future.

WELLINGTON - The Lakeside Gardens here has

The village areas, the brainchild of 100 loyal burghers and $10,000 thirty years ago, can toss its head and throwout a button-busting chest.

Nestling below its cement-coated "innards" are eight miles of gleaming pipe, one of the main cogs in the brand new ice-making machinery.

Production and installation of the new artific plant was but another evidence of the "togetherne he 1,100 more or less population.

Perhaps outstanding in the village's long list of com-nity efforts is the more or less prodigious task of "pour-" cement for the areas floor. Teen-agers and greybeards massed wheelbarrows in cement-carrying safaris. Hundreds of "loads" were trundled by the village and district reluntary manpower. The Job was templeted 12 hours under the contractor resimate of 36 hours at a saving of $4,000.

One of the "boys" of the not-so-Roaring Thirties ked at the scene with nostalgia sweeping over him.

His eyes swept over the interior of the building. "I can see Bob Upton, Sr., making the ice on a cold winter morning," he reminisced. "And Art Murphy ("be Jingus") telling aim how to do it."

"We had a lot of fun in those days," he went on.

Two Lively Controversies

For some people, convoversy is the spice of Such people should be happy this week. Here in Ontario we have suddenly churned up two first-class arguments.

Rev. Gordon Hunter of Ashbury and West United Church, Toronto, has charged the Jews with attempting to make Canada a Godless nation

Ken Drushka, the editor of "Varsity" has expressed a disgust "for the institutions and leaders which created a need for the annual exercony," Remembrance Day.

Both assertions have been greeted with howls of protest.

protest. her will do any real harm, and may even do some good, providing the originators of the controversy are not accused of saying things which they did not.

Mr. Hunter did not call the Jews Godless.
Mr. Drushka did not express disgust with the men whose memory the nation honors on embrance Day.

What Mr. Hunter said, and what Mr. Drushks said, was not new. They were merely repeat-ing charges made many times in the past.

ing charges made many times in the pass.

The Jews are opposed to religious instruction in public schools and it is Mr. Hunter's contention that lack of this instruction makes a country Godless

Mr. Drushka feels that the men who died fighting for their country "had to waste their lives in a senseless manner."

Now there is no question but that Godless countries do not teach religion in school and there is equally no question but that in many wars in the past lives have been wasted in a ss way.

The questions which need to be answered are whether the opposition to the teaching of religion in Canadian schools is likely to lead to godlessness and whether the wars in which the men remembered on Nov. 11 died were senseless. Dealing with the latter question first, be-cause it is the easiest, it seems to us it would be difficult to discover a war in which there was more sense than that against the Nauß. Hitter represented a deadly threat to all that most Canadians, then and now, (and we are certain serviced to a good life. Dealishia), regarded es-servicia to a good life. Dealishia), regarded es-servicia to a good life. sential to a good life.

As for Mr. Hunter's charge, the best and fairest comment is probably that of Rabbi W. Gunther Plaut of Toronto: "On this question you find Christians and Jews on both sides of the argument."

the argument."

But it would be wrong to persecute Mr.
Drushka and Mr. Hunter for their opinions.
The men, whom Mr. Drushka believes died senselessly, died in the hope that they were making Fibs world safe for people like Mr.
Drushka to express unpopular opinions.
In opposing the teaching of religion in public schools, the Jews are endeavoring to make it possible for a man to differ from the majority, as Mr. Hunter does, without being held up to public scorn and ridicule.

Two Sides of the Same Coin

The House of Commons this week had before it a bill which included a provision for tax incentives for new industries locating in slowgrowth areas.

growth areas.

The aim of the bill is admirable. It is designated to assist those communities which, through circumstances generally beyond their control, are not aharing fully in the growing property of the nation as a whole a different interpretation on its provisions. They conservatives, however, put a different interpretation on its provisions. They regarded the fact that only some numicipalities would be a support of the control of as arbitrary discrimination against municipali-ties which will not share in these privileges. The Conservatives, of course, are basically

Nobody can enjoy a privilege without some-body suffering from discrimination, just as all discrimination implies the existence of privil-eges. The two things are opposite sides of This does not necessarily mean that special circumstances may not warrant the granting of special privileges—but it is well that we should be reminded that the inevitable price of privilege is discrimination.

Battery trouble becomes a popular lopic this time of year but often, the battery itself has little to do with it. A faulty regulator is by no means uncommon.

The regulator serves as a mechanical traffic cop directing the charge from generator to battery. Like any other part, it can go haywire. When it does, the battery suffers. A defective or failing regulator can cause overcharging or II may stop the generator from providing an adequate battery charge. Many regulator troubles arise because connections become loose or dirty, or because air or point gaps are off, Correcting such conditions is a simple and 66Now that we have electric heating the air is cleaner and not as dry. There are no drafts either. We don't have dry throats all winter long says Mr. R. D. Wilkinson, 11 Elaine Place, Bruckville, Oscarlo

What makes electric heating the world's cleanest heating system?

With the possible exception of sunlight, electric heating is With a cleanest in the world. Because it doesn't burn fuel it cannot create dust, soot, smoke or dirt of any kind. Your whole home is heated directly with electricity through built-in heating units in each room

Electric heating cuts down on daily cleaning. Flor furniture and rugs stay cleener much longer. You'll spend a lot less time (and money) cleaning, polishing and dusting in an electrically heated home.

You even save money on re-decorating costs, You'll be astonished at the length of time your rooms keep their freshly decorated look.

ELECTRIC HEATING REVOLUTIONIZES MODERN LIVING

Only electric heating gives you custom-comfort. You can dial exactly and precisely the temperature you want for any room in the house. That's because electric heating offers you a thermostat in every room.

Electric heat is gentle and constant. There are no cold spots in the house or uncomfortable blasts of hot air.

You'll never be disturbed by noises. Electric heating is the quietest heating system there is. And there's such a healthful atmosphere... never too dry.

A safety breakthrough in home heating. The entire system is completely flame

You get more living space. Because electric heating doesn't need a furnace you have extra living area in the LOW INSTALLATION COST

Electric heating is easy to install. No furnace or fuel tank is necessary. An extension to your wiring system is all that is required. And with electric heating there are no annual maintenance costal WHAT AROUT OPERATING COSTS?

In many municipalities the rate for electric heating has been reduced as much as 30% during the last two years. This means that in some areas it actually costs less to heat a home electrically than it does with other systems. In other places, the cost is about the same. In the few areas where rates are still slightly higher, the difference is negligible compared to the extra value electric heating gives you.

ELECTRIC HEATING GIVES VOIL A CHOICE OF HEATING SYSTEMS

Electric baseboard heating fits snug along walls at base-board level. Insulated electric cable can be hidden in the ceiling or below the floor. And there are other units, some that can be flush mounted in ceilings or walls.

GUARANTEED INSTALLATION

Choose an electric heating contractor who is qualified to back his work with the industry-recognized Triple-Seal of Quality guarantee. This guarantee covers both equipment and installation. Any home with electric heating should be built to Hydro standards of insulation.

THE LONG TERM ECONOMY OF ELECTRIC HEATING PROVES THAT IF YOU ARE BUILDING OR BUYING A NEW HOME, WHATEVER THE SIZE, THERE IS NO REASON WHY YOU SHOULD SETTLE FOR ANYTHING LESS THAN THE CLEANLINESS, CUSTOM-COMFORT AND SAFETY OF THE HEATING SYSTEM THAT IS REVOLUTIONIZING MODERN LIVING

For more information and estimates, contact your qualified electric heating contractor or your local Hydro office.

RARE, MEDIUM, WELL-DONE

By GEO. H. CARVER, Sports Editor Ole Jupe Pluvius pushed the sprinkler system button gave the northern timberlands haunts of the deer a grous baptism, during the first week of the hunt.

Bill Bittle of the Tweed district Department of Lands and Forests says that the adverse weather conditions of the opening days was a contributing factor in a decline of the deer kill.

He says the rains came on Wednesday, deluged the woods all day Thursday and most of Friday, with a slight drizle and intermittent showers spoiling the hunt for the greater part of Saturday.

Anyway it was a great time for reminiscing-and story-iciling. Bridge decks and quite likely a host of poker chips took a generous besting as the boys were forced to remain in cottage and hunting cabin, while the raims best a steady tattoo on rooftops. Mr. Bittle points out that the deer were there, but the hunders weren't. He says at least a third of the ninrods remained indoors for two days out of six. Many hunters reported going out for only part of each day, perhaps no more than a chane or two.

He says the total hunting effort may have been re-ed by forty per cent. This would naturally reduce harvest of deer.

According to information obtained at the departural check points, most of the deer were killed on enday and Tuesday. Saturday was the next best reduction day.

The checking stations are maintained at Eldorado thhrook (moved from Kaladar) and Amprior. They is be operated full swing again today and tomorrow.

Preliminary reports from the Eldorade and North-sel check points tudicate that 21 per cent of the stores were successful in haging a deer, Mr. Bittle a. Tale is down somewhat in comparison to last from the comparison of the comparison to the from the comparison of the comparison to the comparison to the comparison to the comparison of the comparison o

In actual figures, according to the department of-ial, 1894 hunters were checked with 391 deer, 24 recent of which were favon. Many deer were taken is the calls deserge. Mr. Bittle mid, adding signifi-sity, "and more should have been taken out."

And here's a tip to you scenut fishermen An Outsrie regulation, 184/83 made under the Game and Fish Act, 1961-62, says: "No person shall occupy a lust on the ice of any water for the purpose of fishing unless it bears on the outside the name and address of

And some of "youne guys" have been littering the ice cound the but with garbage, tin cans, bottles, and what's ft of what you have had.

A few have decided that the shack is not worth taking home and have left it on the ice. I've got news for you. The Act says: "No person shall leave any hat used for fishing on the ice of waters south of and including the French and Mattiwa Rivers, after the Jist day of March, any year.

The Act clause is not wepled, too clearly but Mr. R. E. Whitefield of the Tweed headquarters Lands and Forests, explained to me vis telephone that "waters south of and including the French and Mattawa rivers" includes all waters in southern Ontario and that includes the waters hereabouts. Better he safe than sorry.

Don't say you weren't told. The above legislation is specially designed to enable enforcement officers to identify owners and occupants of fish huts.

ty owners and occupants of fish huts.

If its not meant to encroach on any personal liber-ties. Any sane-minded ice hut fisherman or fishermen, won't do these things. But a warky few makes it necessary to protect the "good guya."

The government is not fooling. Its recent lee-but regulation is a first step in a move to have the ice surface of district lakes kept clean and to have all ice huts off the ice before the spring breakup.

The "good guys" do not have to be told. As was mentioned the legislation is directed to those people who love their fishing meals fun but neglect to wash the figurative dahes.

In Praise of Youth

Lt.-Col. H. W. Mulherin, Officer Commanding the First Canadian Guards at Picton, was the speaker at a Remembrance Day banquet in Legion hall at Trenton.

In the course of his address, he referred to the youth of today and "their methods of letting their hair down and playing the fool." He de fended these young people, many of whom are the sons and daughters of veterans of the Second Great War.

The youth of today are not any different from us—they just have a different way of ex-pressing themselves," he declared.

Since "letting the hair down" and "playing the fool" are particularly annoying to the mili-tary mind, Lt-Col. Mulherin's defence of these young people is doubly heart-warming.

We think he is right in essence, but errs in details.

When he says that letting the hair down and playing the fool "may not be our way". Let the way of veterans—he has a short memory. There was no generation more adopt at "letting the hair down' in a figurative sense and in playing the fool than these veterans when they were many than the way that was the way the same of the playing the fool than these veterans when they were the way the way the same of the way the same of the same than the way that the same than young. Women have invaded the once-male world of work; now it is time for men to repay the complinent. The women, bless them, may have prepared men for this more. Because so mandered a man's work outside the home, an omnidered a man's work outside the home, an omnidered women, who work to take the home. It should not be difficult for men with this sort of preliminary training to compete for the new jobs opening up in the service industries.

The day of the tired men is over . . . if you want a symbol from one country, we are moving out of the age of Adenauer into the age of Willy Brandt.—Mr. Harold Wilson, M.P.

Should Re-Appraise Plan

The plan, as it now stands, clouded by doubts and en-four gurs stepped out of the car showing definite shock. One had bet the cookie-jar money on n. His three buddies had backed the Ottawa Riders rather heavily.

All four numbled something that sounded like: "It n't happen. It couldn't have."

One told me later that the shock killed all the tulip bulbs in Bytown and the impact shook the Peace Tower.

Nothing has hit Ottawa so heavily since Char-lotte Whitton took over the "Hizzoner" title and offered to swap punches with Alderman Paul Tardiff.

Not even the most rabid old Tiger-Cat hidden deep in a lair in the jungles of Hamilton would have predicted that. It was the second wonder of the Cana-dian football world in a short time. The Sasky Riders' miraculous comeback against Calgary was the first.

But even hard-boiled Ottawa fans will admit 45 pois to much to overcome even in the miracle world.

The Tiger-Cais were at their football best, and at risk of being called an "ailb! squawker" the Riders re at times almost pitiful.

Even the loyal Bytowners showed their displeasure it some Ottawa high school plays with choruses of boos. In all fairness the Tigers are not that much better han the Riders. They were "up" all the way and their budge was beautiful.

As a disappointed Frank Clair said "I've no excuses, were completely outplayed by a club that played one k of a game." And that sums it up perfectly.

Out word H looks like the Sakatchewan Rough Distress will have so pull miracle rabbits two and three cast elds offer Cup final and. They went down 187 and the control of the control of the control of the humpy Vancouver R.C. In the control of the con-ley of the control of the control of the control of the power for the second and coulded final point. They play there again next Sakarday if the series calls for the filled tambs.

The wisser? After what happened to the Stan-peders against Regins and the Ottawa Routh Riders at home to Hamilton, I wouldn't bet a plugged nickel the teams will use a football. They might try it with a fur-cented eccount.

Regardiese of what mantel Earl Grey's battle-crusted powterware will grace, the real winner will be Canada's Pearl of the Pacific, the Grey Cup City of Vancouver.

Her cash registers in hotel, motel, bitto, restaurs and anack har will jungle a golden jingle. After a week of celebration that includes a football game, her banks will be "busting" with sheares of the well-known long reen letture. And there's a million waiting for the gry who can lavent a jea-minute cure for the hangaver.

There will be the most colorful parade since the Calgary Stampeders invented the Grey Cup fandango in 1948, which will include the Harty Pees Band in case you've forgotten your donation.

Over-Scrupulous?

Hon. Harry Hays, federal minister of agri-eniture, is selling most of his cattle on his ranch at High River, Alberta.

Mr. Hays says his job as minister of agriculdoes not leave him enough time to devote

This is a reasonable and easily understand-

It so happens, however, that the notices of the sale provide an additional reason—dispersal of the herd will provide "exclusion of personal ts from his position as agriculture min-

If this influenced Mr. Hays in his decision, he is to be complimented. In sharp contrast to many in municipal politics, he has decided that, like Caesar's wife, he must be beyond sus-

It does strike us, though, that it is going to be very difficult for all cabinet ministers to match the standard Mr. Hays appears to be setting him-

Most prime ministers and premiers, when selecting members of their cabinet, endeavor to choose men or women with special knowledge concerning the portfolios which they will administer. This has obvious advantages. To avoid conflict of interests, ministers often divest themselves of investments, or sever their connections with corporations. Mr. Hays, in selling his cattle, is just carrying this one step further, but it is a step which acquires considerable significance upon examination. As a rancher, Mr. Hays could hardly expect to obtain any special benefits from the policies followed by his department; all he would do would be to such a support of the policy of the contract of spariment; all he would do would be to share n any advantages which might accrus to ranch-ness as a whole. For him to forego such a share s admirable—but many ministers are going to find it much more difficult to achieve the same where a many processions qualifications fit him for a cabinet post, he cannot strip himself of his professional standing and may thus, willy-mily, find his future personal fortunes affected by his decisions as a minister. As for the minister of citisenship—well, he cannot possibly cease to be a citizen.

If Mr. Hays was really worried about his "personal interests" affecting his duties as minister of agriculture, we think he was being over-acrupalous—but this attitude is such a contrast to that shown by so many others in Canadian political life that we cannot withhold our applicance.

Well-Neglected Duty

Hal C. Banks, president of the Seafarers, International Union of Canada, has been form-ally charged with conspiracy to commit assault. He is free on ball.

While on ball he has been permitted to leave the jurisdiction of the court.

eave the jurisdiction of the court.

Eidon Woollams. Progressive Conservative nember for Bow River, thinks this is scandalrus. He has charged Justice Minister Citervrier with dereliction of duty for permitting Mr. Banks leave the country, Perhaps, Mr. Woolliams is right.

Techaps, Mr. Woelliams is right. However, in the event that Mr. Banks returns to Canada, no harm will have been done, while should be remain away Mr. Chewrise may well go down at the most hepful shiker of his duly in the history of his country. The ball, we presume, would be excheated and the country would not only get rid of Mr. Banks but would be inancially recompensed for enjoying the blessure of his property of the country would not be compared for enjoying the blessure of the country would not be compared for enjoying the blessure of the country would not be considered for enjoying the blessure of the country would not be compared for enjoying the blessure of the country would not be compared to the recompensed for enjoying the pleasure beence. Dereliction of duty of this ki duplicated often enough, could well make the Canada an earthly paradise.

Subsidy Problem

Subsicy Problem
The Ontarior Sederation of Agriculture recently rejected a motion cailing for removal of the federal mindry on feed grain shipped from the west to Ontario. The farmers agreed that if the subsidy was removed the feed grain might be kept in the west and fed to cattle there.
which might be hard on Ontariot cattle farmers,
And since the beef cattle farmers outnumber
the senior removal in the O.P.A. cattle was rewhich might be navo on classes outnumber the grain growers in the O.F.d., callies men work that grain growers in the O.F.d., callies men work that the grain growers in the O.F.d., callies men work what the opportunities of the green ment, not what the opportunities of the green ment, not what the opportunities of the green ment, not what the powerment will grant.

But as long as recommendations for subsidies of the green ment, and what the powerment is an inclusive the subsidies are being bandled about, we have our own private recommendation. The government has increased the properties of the green ment of the green which is the properties of the green and the green which is the properties of the green and the green which is the properties of the green and the green which is the properties of the green and the green which is the properties of the green and the green which is

Dennis Hall, a vocaless veteran of the St. Catharine tek Mawka, stands an excellent chance to explod a sayth that top-star bockey players' brothers neve at the big time, with the exception of "Pocket has been been as the big time, with the exception of "Pocket has been as the big time, with the exception of "Pocket has been as the big time, with the exception of "Pocket has been as the big time, with the exception of "Pocket has been as the big time."

Dennis, who celebrates this 19th birthday today, is playing his fourth sensor of junior "A" bockey and can play for the Hawks next sensor—or say farewell to the runks of the sunsteurs.

Jack Gatecliffe, sports editor of the St. Catharines undard, who has kept a close watch on Dennis since he need the Hawks says Henri Richard has proven he is no pocket." Technically, says Gatelliffe, "he has turned to be a better all-round player than Maurice."

"Re's a different type completely, taking advantage of his tremendous shaling and stickhandling ability in lion of his brother's sheer power."

Gatecliffe says II comparisons must be made, Denril is much closer to Bobby than Henri was to Maurice,

"In fact," he says. "Dennis, right now, is playing healesy amantagly similar to Robby when he last were a St. Catharine uniform. Both here the ability to lift the fam from their sents with smaller inhi-length washes and would much righter grownsit righ-length washes and would much righter go over an op-posing defenceman than around him."

Although not as necurate, yet, Dennis has the tre-mendous writs power which makes goalies wince in suitor as they did during Bobby's two years is Si. Cath-rines . And he has the same determination to make sockey a career.

Gatecliffe asked Dennis if he would like to play on a with his illustrious brother

"I don't particularly care," the youngster replied, "Bobby has given me lots of the (excluding of course the hists of hair care in that TV commercial) hat I don't mind who I play with or with what team just so long as I can make it to the National Hockey League."

And if he does, Gatecliffe remarks, it won't be use by hanging on to his brother's hockey isouscra-tring the name Hull may have given him a slight mp on other players, but from here on he's on his named has been been been been him to be a super-

Few players of junior age have had the same pressure on them since Dennis joined the then Trepees in the 1960-61 season. The youngest member of the Holl clan has come through with few metal or physical scars after following a brother like Marie Robert.

The younger told cited fire in a recent interview:
If not you have to the cited first two years. It goes a few people thought that because my name was first it should play like floobly. Sure, it speet me, but I should play like floobly. Sure, it speet me, but I should play like floobly. Sure, it speet me, but when the play it is chance to play. Now they can say what they want, and it for rolls off.

Dennis' answer to the criticism of hostile fans la his playing ability. And that has developed and is developing to the point where the rifaxide tensors have forgotten he has a brother in the NHL and are judging him on his individual play.

Among other youngsters who have started playing hockey in the shadow of famous "big brothers" and found themselves wanting are another Richard, and the son of the late Howle Morent. Both, it appears, lacked the ability, and faded from the picture.

Dennis may never develops the super-star abili-of Sobby but his coach believes he has the potenti-to reach the status of the greater majority of Nation League players.

The coach, Ken Campbell, believes the potential has always been there but only last year it began to assert itself, and is carrying over in no uncertain manner this

So it very well could be that in the not too distant stature with three brothers and seven sisters, not to meation proud purents cheering him on, Hall the Younger will be sarving out his future in National Stockey League areans, either with brother Bobby or against him.

The Selassie Doctrine

Hale Setassis, Emperor of Rhitopia, has icid the quarrel between Algeria and Morrocco Tamily affair.

He hanks it concerns only African nationa. This is noweness. From if Algeria and Morrocco were not much closer, geographically, to oper han to many parts of Africa, and even they did not have closer cultural, political they did not have closer cultural, political seconds ties with lands outside Africa. and sconomic ties with lands outside account it with many countries on that continent, it

B with many countries on their volume and add still be nonsense.

The world cannot be divided into closed comments on the basis of geography.
But Halle Selassie is not the first to suggest such a division.

A bundred and forty years ago precisely the same idea was advanced by a man named James Monroe, who happened to be president of the United States of America.

Be had three advantages over Halle Schassich—he lived before the world had been shrunk by the airplane, he "family estate" the Americas, was divided from the rest of the world by oceans rather than by comparatively narrow seas and a canal, and his nation grew into the most powerful in the world.

eanal, and his nation grew into the most pow-erful in the world.

But for this, the Monroe Doctrine of 1823 would have suffered the same fate as appears likely for the Science Doctrine of 1963.

RARE, MEDIUM, WELL-DONE By GEO. H. CARVER, Sports Editor

"The way things are going," as the man said when he beard his wife had taken off with the handsome ledger, "this could be the your when anything and everything its happen."

The last two or three weeks have been open season swamis, yogis, savants, soothsayers and the boys in the

Crow is rapidly becoming the forced favorite dish on menu of sports predictors.

Like that loyal Windsor fan who remarked prior to the Bulldogs departure for the red realm of caviar and volfa, "this is the best anateur club ever to rep-resent Canada in Europe."

So far the "Dogs" have been whipped three times in as many outings while the Muscovites have scored 21 goals against the Bulldogs four.

Ekrushchev stortly denies things are going on rocks in Russia. But he purchases $45,000,000 wo of alcohol from United States interests. Sports experts who pick up extra shekels by writ-hig commiss for newspapers are proving that all music teachers cannot play a piano.

Toronto Argonauts and Montreal Alouettes gave evince that for the want of a quarter the halves were lost.

As hvisible drug dubbed "mental hop-up" or miracle psychology at the Saskatchewan Rough Riders upright in their "coffin" and enabled them to stitlette the Calgary Stampeders' hopes for the western final.

The biggest thing to go on the rocks since Scotch invented was the Ottawa Rough Riders' football in when they were distintegrated by the ravenous or Cuts from Hamilton's Jungletown.

After the successful "forward passing" of Mayor Ch a Whitton against linebackers Berton and Sinclair cortain television program, Coach Frank Clair shot a inserted her, as the Ridges' quarter after the fit minutes of play.

"Gump Worsley," chertied some Montreal fras, back playing for his hame town team. Just watch go." They did. They saw him sent down to the bec Aces for "conditioning."

The sites?" queed Jalie the wins, 18 losses and Jacques' mark is 89 gooks stored against him in 6 panes.

"Now we can operate as a club with a playing quar-chack," the Cleveland Browns famous Jim Brown was folded as saying after Coach Paul Brown as given the leave-ho. The Browns are in a current support of the searched. The Browns are in a current support paving searched between the white Paul is collecting $75,000 annual contract salary playing golf.

"Be execul," Chicago Black Hawk officials are said have warned Bobby Hell. "Watch softball and base-i and working too hard on that farm this summer."

Robby more or less "watched" softball and base-ball but worked like a Trojan on the reach. His goals recoord to date is an even dozen—and get this—serves move than at the same time and same number of games played the year he scored the fifty.

Chicago Bears and the Green Bay Fackers hald stored workeds prior to the big game last Study. What he or lie thanks or against their repaids defence." Parkers couch Vince Lemberd said in a pre-game Parkers couch Phore Lemberd and in a pre-game Bear claved the Innone Fackers into the ground. Allock for post-game comment Lembard said "No tanks."

Of Spinach and Metrecal

Popeye has just been put in his place — by Dr. J. M. Coon, head of the pharmacology department of Jefferson Medical College in Philadelph-

Dr. Coon, an expert on poisons, told the House of Commons committee on food and drugs that there are chemicals appearing naturally in some foods which are harmful. Spinach and rhubarb both contain more exalic acid than would be recommended as an additive to food. Rats fed on a diet containing ten per cent spin-ach suffer kidney damage and other ailments.

Education appears to be that process of in-struction which teaches a man to know things he would have realized instinctively if he had never started to think.

never started to think.

Most children have misgivings about spinach and even the roxy rhubarts appearing on the scene when there are no rival edibles of equally attractive appearance, is not always enthusiastically received by the younger see Farents, having long since been tainted with a little learning, have made the mistake of dippring onlos a spinach diet, though if any of these children acquired Popeye's physique and temperament these same parents would probabdie of despair.

Now Dr. Coon comes along to confirm the wisdom of babes just out of arms. If any further evidence is required of the wonders of instinct, we offer a story from "Bush News," which describes itself as "a newspaper for and about woodworkers." It seems that out in British Columbia newsprint companies are finding that deer show a marked preference for nursery-raisuser slow a mirrogen fertilizer is applied to these seedlings. Nitrogen fertilizer is applied to these seedlings. This fertilizer makes the con-fers' needles rich in protein. Unfertilized wild seedlings have starchier needles, whose carbohy-drates fatten the deer up for the kill. So the deer avoid them. Wisy deer.

deer avoid them. Wise deer.

The trouble is That, like parents, newsprint company foresters are unpredictable. Instead of recognizing the undestrability of shooting thin deer, they are considering campaigning for an open season to cut back the size of the herds. The only alternative, says "Bush News" is to "put out buckets of Metrecal as a substitute for high-protein seedlings in case the deer really want a reducing diet."

A Case of Mistaken Identity

The liskes news in man's fashion world is the coloring and permanent waving of hair for alightly shop-your males.

The big push behind the new fast is coming from the distant side who wince at the thought of having their husbands mistaken for their feathers.

We wonder what will happen the first time their husbands are mistaken for their mothers.

When I contemplate the extent to which the moral sentiments, the intelligence, the attections of so many millions of people—sealed up by a sacred charm within the cover of a latter—chally circulate through a country, I am compelled to regard the post office, next to Christianity, as the right arm of our modern civilization—challed breest.

It rounds out my collection of L.P. (louxy-playing) ibune. The rest were cut in Sweden, Finland, Ger-sany and Caechedovakia.

The melody changes somewhat but the lyrics are ctically the same with only alight differences in the

There is one important change, however. The Rus-s used their "criticism" as letag on the cake. In resers foreign journalists used it to assuage the spaces of defeat at the hands of Camelian hockey

In the case of the Windsor Buildogs' current Canadian apphassadors of hockey in Bussia, the Soviet national team and others have made the Dogs look like untrained supplets, hockey-wise. They have beaten our side 4-3, 10, 8-1, and 2-0.

But the Bulldogs, Windsor fans and Canadians in gen-al shapidn't pay too much attention to the yelps of the east that by journalistic bombast turns the knife in the und of defeat.

After all this annual replaying of a nearly work out-record is but another argument for the internationaliz-ation of world hockey rules. Canada has catered too dammed long to the European squads and the world organization by playing all gissees, exhibition and tour-mentwise, under the regulations set up over there.

Veterans of the Klitcheser Dutchmen, Whitby Dun-lops, Belleville McFarlands, Gall Terrises/ Pentictoe Ve, Trail Smoke Extern and others who have read or heard the Moscow blasts over the Bulldog style of play prob-ably cherused "Let's dance, dear, they are playing our

The Dutchmen would recognize the word "roughneets."
The Smokers would smile when they hear "western hoolingsan." The Mace will recall the Finnish blast "nurderous" and the fact they were pelited with snow-covered ice allows.

The Bulldogs were greeted with front-page blasts of "heelignaism" and diagracing Canadian heckey by their rough play from the Moscow sports absets.

They called Bulldog Jack Costello a "heoligan" heccuse he draw three penalties, including a ten-minute misconduct. They should see a good old-fashinased junior "A", or "B" for that matter, brawl on this side of the penal.

pead.

I recall the first game the Macs played against the Casch game in Bratislava. The Canadians won 5-2 but the Macs had most of the penalties, Big Al Dewbury and Lamny Lamirande on defence were the prime offenders according to a German-American officiating duo.

I saked big "Dew" and Lammy about it in the dressing room after the game. Said they: "When we saw one of these fast-daking bimbos cross the blue like with his head tacked between his knees, he was like a sitting fack to a hungry hunter."

When you consider Canada finished fourth in inter-national, tourneying last winter behind Russia, Sweden and Crechoslovakia, the handwriting on the wall is pretty

This country might better concentrate on developing players and teams within her own boundaries than waste time and money sending clubs on tours of Europe where they not only get tiebbered on the ice but insulted of off it.

So don't pay much attention to the binsts of the Soviet Journals. They know their tood-mouthed "cri-ticism" is for local consumption, mainly to improve the rinkside towariches by comparison what clean-playing sportanen and gentlemen were the colors of the Soviet Union.

"What's the flavour secret of Gold Crest Whisky?" "It's in Walker's secret distilling process"

WALKER'S GOLD CREST

A secret distilling process gives Gold Crest a flavour you'll really enjoy. It combines the qualities you like best, in perfect balance. Gentle, light, -mellow to be sure-but with the subtle difference of a great flavour secret. And always of the same superb quality. Try Gold Crest next time. You'll see why it's attracting so much attention.

As candidate for your mayor, I will be pre-senting a program of action which will be out-lined in this, and forthcoming advertisements, both in this newspaper and over radio station CJBQ.

I feel that in presenting my proposed plan of action at this time, it will give you, the people of Believille, the opportunity to consider my program throughly, before you make your choice on voting day.

I think this proposed action is important to the future of our City. I sincerely hope you

Yours very truly.

His Heart Was Too Big

It seems callous to declare that Mayor Summerville of Toronto was the victim of his own folly, but this is the only way in which even a minimum of compensation can be obtained for his untimely death.

Mayor Summerville was the victim of heart trouble. A symptom was when he agreed to play goal in a hockey game designed to raise funds for the Italian flood relief fund. If Mayor Summerville's heart had not been too big. his head would have told him that it is asking o much of a 48-year-old urbanite to give of too much of a 48-year-old urbanite to give of himself in this fashion.

The Mayor's death recalls a similar fatality, the death of Lionel Conacher, M.P., in a softball game between members of Parliament and newspapermen.

Both Summerville and Conacher were familiar with the roles which proved fatal to them.

Summerville at one time was spare goale for the Toronto Maple Leafs. Conachers of course, was "The Big Train," one of the greatest alround athletes Canada has ever produced.

This may easily have been their undoing. A rank amateur, finding a game making far too great a demand on flabby muscles and over-worked lungs, would be likely to laugh and relax. worsed iungs, would be likely to laugh and relax. Summerville and Conacher, though, both knew how the game should be played. One surmises that they may, perhaps unconsciously, here demanded that their bodies match in perform-snoe the akills of which their minds still had a clear grasp. The pride of an old pro may have betrayed them.

Surely, we do not need more than two lessons like this. It is no part of the duties of our public men to put a, killing strain on their againg bodies for the sake of publicity for a cause, no ter how good.

Two Viewpoints

John L Snyder Jr., of U.S. Industries Inc., is backing the demand of the AFL-CIO for a 35-hour week, with no reduction in pay.

35-bour week, with no reduction in pay.

Rayder see a shorter work week as a cure for unemployment. Unless unemployment is reduced, he sulcipaste difficulty in seiling the automatic machines which his company manufactures. These machines, of ourse, are held by many, including leaders of the AFL-CIO, to be one of the cause of unemployment.

The AFL-CIO wants a shorter work week to cure unemployment caused by the sale of auto-matic machinery. Snyder wants a shorter work week to cure unemployment so that more automatic machinery may be sold.

If both the AFL-CIO and Snyder are correct about the effects of automation and the effects of a shorter work week, the logical result would be several rounds of this procedure, until eventually everybody would be getting paid for doing nothing.

Yet President George Meany of the AFL-CIO says that automation is a curse. If so, perhape what the AFL-CIO should advocate is the Neverse of the shorter work week which Mr.
Snyder feels would assist him to sell automatic machines. A longer work week for the same pay, might easily delay the spread of automation. But Mr. Meany would have a difficult fole selling that to undon members as a blessing.

Cost-Sharing Troubles

A Canadian Pless report from Ottawa hints that next week's federal - provincial conference may bring changes in present cost-sharing programs between the national government and the provinces.

There are two ways to look at such pro-

On the one hand, they are a tool which the federal government can use in an endeavor to achieve uniformity of opportunity and security for all Canadians, regardless of where they may

On the other, such programs may lure a province into spending money in one field when this money could be used to greater advantage on some other program. There is no uniformity in provincial needs.

in provincial needs.

Taking everything into consideration it would probably be preferable if an agreement could be reached making the federal government wholly responsible for some of the programs now financed jointly, with the province assuming all the costs of other projects.

Any such agreement, though, might well prove impossible without a revision of the terms of the British North America Act, in which the respective responsibilities of the federal government and provinces were spelled out.

Most of the world lives in darkness

Hard to believe, but true, Yet more than 70% of the countries of the world impose complete or partition in their newspapers.

In these countries, Freedom of the Press is lost—and with it, people have lost their voice in government. Protest against such curbs is quickly muzzled. Fortunately, in Canada, Freedom of the Press is unchallenged. It is a Canadian birthright that must be guarded. .

Few Canadians realize that our press has no special privileges. The rights of the press are the same as each person's rights. The individual and the press possess identical freedoms and identical responsi-

Our newspapers require no permission to operate. They have no obligation to any governmental body. They have free access to all the news. They are responsible only to you, their readers

History records that when free people are deprived of their easy access to news they lose their say in government. Consider this the next time you pick up your daily newspaper. Truth and freedom are necessities you can't afford to lose. Guard them!

Assassination of President

A Shocking Tragedy President John Fitzgerald Kennedy was amiling when the assassin's bullet struck.

The world will remember him thus, a happy rrior who served his country and mankind because he believed it his duty and who, doing his duty, was happy in himself and someh brought to all who saw him a conviction that world could be made a better place for all and here was the man who was born to provide the needed leadership for this task.

President Kennedy brought to the most verful office in the world a deft touch, a steadfastness, a sincerity and an integrity which was tremendously reassuring. But it was not only as a leader of men and of nations that President Kennedy was loved. One had only to see him and to hear him, through the electronic miracles of our age, to feel the impact of his personality.

Here was a man who even a stranger could like, yes love, as well as admire. In some magic manner, his warmth and his good will were transmitted through the ether, along with the impulses which made his picture glow with life on the TV screen, his voice add conviction to his words as they reached us over the radio.

One could not help but appreciate how much One could not help but appreciate how much greater his impact must be on those who worked with him in person. As for his family, there was evidence in every picture of him with his beautiful wife, or with one or more of his lively and fun-loving children, that here was no automaton devoted to affairs of state, but a full man, living a full life, with love in his

If we who knew him only at a distance were moved to displays of emotion by the shocking and completely unexpected news of his brutal murder—if we burst into tears or—curses, fel numb and dazed, how much greater must the shock have been to his wife, who sat beside him in happy companionship when the blow came, into whose lap his life-blood flowed as their car staged a futile race to place him in skilled hands at a nearby hospital.

Our first thoughts are ones of grief for his wife, children, brothers and parents in their great loss. Our next should be ones of sym-pathy-for the nation he served, bereaved of a great leader. But then we realize that we, all of us throughout the world, have also been rob-bed of a man who meant much to our past and whose absence may greatly affect our future.

sed no one to tell us that, in the death of President J. F. Kennedy, we are all diminish-ed. That he was no island unto himself, but the very heart that sent the lifeblood of freedom and of hope coursing around the main had long since been made abundantly plain.

There can hardly be a sane and informed man or woman anywhere in the world today, be he or she American or Canadian or Briton or German or even Russian or Chinese, who does or feel less secure than he did before one o'clock yesterday afternoon. Slowly, but nonetheless surely, Kennedy appeared to be building a bridge over which the world could more from today's feeling of uncertainty to a more secure, a hap-

Now the bridge builder has been snatched from his task by an assassin's bullet, leaving us all wondering whether, by one of those miracles of response which sometimes result in a chal-lenge transforming a merely capable man into a figure of historic stature, Vice President Lyndon on will be able to follow where President

There is virtually nobody in the world today whose future may not be affected by what happened at Dallas yesterday. The heroes of peace are no less important to a nation, and to the world, than those of war—and are much more difficult to come by.

Only time will reveal the true extent of the tragedy it marks—whether it is to have sinister portents or whether a great man had already built so much, so well, in his short but unremitting years of toil in the most powerful office in the world, that we will continue to reap what he sowed so industriously—peace with honor and

If history pays him his due, he will be enshrined in the hearts of his fellow-country-men, but even this can be scant comfort for his wife and the mother of his children, in whose lap his him and heart and was cradled after that lap his his ing he world-shaking shot

On December 2, 1963, you will be asked to make an important decision — that is to select a new mayor for the upcoming term of office.

As candidate for your mayor, I will be pre-senting a program of action which will be out-lined in this, and forthcoming advertisements, both in this newspaper and over radio-station CJBQ.

I feel that in presenting my proposed plan of action at this time, it will give you, the people of Believille, the opportunity to consider my pro-gram thoroughly, before you make your choice on voting day.

I think this proposed action is important to the future of our City. I sincerely hope you will agree,

Yours very truly,

"I thought I was dreaming when I saw the price of our dream home."

66 We only looked at the house for fun-I like to dream. It was a Medallion all-electric home, beautifully designed for modern living with planned lighting, electric heating, the works! Then we discovered that it cost no more than the house we were going to buy.9%

66 Well we moved in right away and its still like a dream. The kitchen and laundry are designed for all the electrical appliances we'll ever need, with lots of electrical outlets and heavy duty wiring. Now I can use all the appliances I want without blowing fuses.99

66We feel so much better living in our flameless 'all-electric home.' Of course, the water heater is electric too. (One of those new superfast "Cascade 40's.") Now we get all the hot water we can use and it costs so little. 99

What this country needs is a good 12-month year and you can help it happen!

YOUR INCENTIVE:

FROM THE FEDERAL GOVERNMENT IF YOU HAVE YOUR NEW HOME BUILT IN THE WINTER

DO IT NOW! Arrange for your new home to be Winter Built!

Everyone stands to gain from increased winter work —and you gain $500.00 cash from the Department of Labour if your new house fulfills certain requirements.

First of all—an application for certification as a Winter Built home must be made to the Special Services Branch, Department of Labour, Ottawa, either by you or the builder. This step is essential.

The bulk of the work on your new home must be carried out before March 31, 1964. The foundation may be installed before December 1, and certain out-side finishing may be completed after March 31st.

Your home could be built for you, you can build it yourself, or you can buy one ready built. The home can be a single house, or a multiple housing structure for the $500.00 incentive. Naturally it has to c with normal standards of adequate housing an building bylaws.

When to apply? Your builder has the de When to apply? Your builder has the occass. And you can get a pamphlet containing full details and application form from your nearest National Em-ployment Service office, (or Post Office if yes don't have a NES office in your district,) from the Central Mostesse and Housing Corrocation office, or write Mortgage and Housing Corporation offices, or write direct to Special Services Branch, Department of Labour, Ottawa.

Rest assured. Canadian builders have the know-how to make Wintst Built homes a sound invastment. Do It Now. Arrange today to have your bome Winter Built. You'll gain that $500,00 incentive and you'll be helping Canada keep busy through the Program Five began with recognition of the fact that more and more of the unemployed are also unemployable, and that their numbers can also intemployable, and that their numbers can only grow as industry advances into the space age. Recognising this, Program Five makes it possible for the unemployed to return to school, on a government allowance, to make up the gaps in their education. It's logical. It's simple. It's as exciling as a Bussian flavorer-simple. It's as exciling as a Bussian flavorer-

It's a crelling as it is 7 more from the segared to the requirements of the processing of the requirements of the sight courses of the requirements of the sight courses of the requirements of the sight course from the fitting of the requirements of the sight courses from the plant in fary years. The academic-upgrading courses are of timeless value, of course, but the technical courses may prove to be too little, too late.

It was, perhaps, with unconscious irony that It was, perhaps, with unconscious frony that. Program Co-ordinator Leafle Reid told trainers on registration day that automation has dis-placed more than a million workers in the U.S. during the past few years, and may displace four million more in the next few years. Trainers in one of the courses he was address-ine were training for just those office jobs before here. ing were training for just those office jobs being replaced by machines. Welding, the other vocational training course being taught in Belleville, is a field the machines began moving into several years ago.

This is not to belittle the value of the courses. There will always be work for some welders, in non-production-line jobs, and there will always be room for human clerks in small

Dr. Carter had taken issue with the claim

Dr. Carter had taken taus with the claim that one out of four U.S. marriages ends in divorce. It was true, he said, that there were $30,000 divorces in 1900, approximately a quarter of the number of marriages in the same year, the arrive was the arrive of the number of marriages in the same year, the arrive was the arrive of the number of married divorces with the total number of married divorces with the total number of married couples. That comparison produced the one in 109 ratio quoted by $\tilde{\text{M}}$ & Milwaukee Journal. This rate, though, obviously does not provide a reliable yardstick of the number of married a reliable yardstick of the number of married reliable yardstick of the number of years and years are not years are not years ar a reliable yardsuck of the number of married couples who will escape divorce, because mar-riages have a normal life span well in excess of a year. All this means is that there are 108 chances out of 109 a couple will keep out of 108 channes out of 109 a couple will keep out of the divorce outsit in any girry year. I will have high a proportion of U.S. mar-riages and in divorce can, perhaps, be best real-ised by applying the U.S. rate to Belleville's population. If we figure that two out of every population is we figure that two out of every outside to the couple of the couple of the would be 600 and of the couple of the couple of the U.S. rate, this would mean there would be 55 divorces here every year.

Many of us, happy in a creative task must feel that the lack of a clear and worthvolke objective in life is the principal factor which causes so much of the malaise and restlements of this present day. In educating our present flay, in educating our present flay, in educating our present flay, in educating our present day, therefore, we as a nation should remember the words of Eric Olli: "An artist present ideal, which would be a supported that of man, but every men is a special kind of man, but every men is a special kind of statist."—J. Leuis Womenley, city architect of Sheffleid, England.

SCOUT!

There's almost no limit to where the Scout can go -or the variety of jobs it Scout can go—or the variety of jues in will do. Contractors or farmers, sportsmen or Arctic missionaries, Scout owners are going places they could never drive before. Scout 4-wheel drive takes you through deep mud and snow that would through deep mud and snow that would stop an ordinary car or truck in its tracks. The Scout makes short work of tracks. The Scout makes snort work of snowplowing too. Extra power, clear-ance and load space are more good reasons why it's already sales leader in 4-wheel drive. So see and drive it soon—at one of the more than 700 International Dealers across Canada.

JOHN FITZGERALD KENNEDY

Here was a man who was dedicated to the service of his country, a man who won honour and renown for his personal heroism in the arenas of world conflict. Called at an early age to serve his country in its highest office. President Kennedy brought the energy of youth and the wisdom of maturity to meet his task. In a few brief years, he earned the respect and admiration of all who knew his name. To him, more than to any other statesman of his time, the world has looked for leadership.

To the people of the United States of America and to their President's beloved family, we extend our heartfelt sympathy. We mourn with them the loss of his vital presence and his warm humanity.

Universities and Freedom

The other day Canadian universities were advised to "get humping" and solve their own problems, with government intervention in their problems, with government intervention in their affairs the penalty for failure to do so.

This attitude is not unreasonable. The nation's welfare depends in large measure on the manner in which its universities provide opportunities for braining. If they are unable to accommodate a suitable proportion of our young people, then tomorrow's Canada will be lacking medium of the company of the com

What could happen if governments stepped into the picture in earnest, determining policies as well as helping to provide the needed money, is dramatically indicated by a recent remark by Hon. E. W. Hinfian, Alberta's provincial treasurer.

"There must be the greatest freedom of thought and expression as the university" he, said. Then he added: "But it must be that which the culture and concepts of the age can accept. Universities which rely on the must-bulkons for the major part of their revenue must expect to accommodate insiderinal freedom to the purposes the taxpayers expects 18 towers." Intellectual freedom to the purposes the taxpayers expects 10 towers." Intellectual freedom to the purposes the taxpayers expects 11 towers."

There is one sense in which Mr. Hinman's rather hasy biueprint could be followed. If what the tarpayer expects from a university is the training of an adequate number of doctors, dentists. lawyers, teachers, actenitists and engineers, the university could, and should, meet this dentists. lawyers, teachers, actenities and engineers, the university could, and should, meet this demand, while at the same time in no way limiting the intellectual freedom of its students and faculty.

But if this is all Mr. Hinman had in mind, and faculty.

But if this is all Mr. Himman had in mind, he could have put his demand in much simpler language. He could have said that, in his opinion, the universities must first use tax money to protince the number of trained men and wo-long the history of the property of the proper

The taxpayer who demands otherwise is in-sisting that the money which he pays to support universities be, in large measure, wasted.

Iran is redistributing land amongst its poor, aking up big estates. In order to do this in breaking up big estates. In order to do this in an orderly fashion, aerial photographs are being an overty manner, seriar polographs are being taken of the land in question. A plane taking these photographs accidentally strayed across the border of the Soviet Union. Soviet jets ordered the plane to land. Instead of doing so, the pilot flew back into Iran, apparently because he was short of fuel and doubted that he could reach a Soviet airport safely. The jets crossed the border and shot the plane down, killing two of the aerial survey officials aboard it.

But for the fact that they followed the

New CHEVELLE! by Chevrolet

The Chevelle is a highly polished car on a trim 115-inch wheel base, with its weight down in the 3,000-pound range. All of which makes it a sweet-handling, easy-to-manoeuvre automobile.

But it's roomy and relaxing inside, with the kind of ride you'd expect in a bigger car. And it's styled with a lively grace and expect in a bigger car. And it s styles with a neely grace and refinement (curved side windows and pillars, for example) that make its modest price all the more remarkable.

A neat trick? We agree. But not so difficult really when you have the skills of seasoned Body by Fisher craftsmen to draw upon. CHEVROLET

And the advantage of Full Coil suspension developed by the same engineering talent that came up with the Jet-smooth Chevrolet's ride.

And that irrepressible Chevrolet spirit in a choice of four engine -V8 or 6-including optional-at-extra-cost versions all the way up to 220 hp.

No wonder this one turned out the way it did.

Did we say one? Actually there are 11 models-wagons, sedans sport coupes, convertibles-in three series. Even some cars that have been around for a time don't give you a choice like that.

Sound like something you ought to check into further? Consider this your invitation for a real hood-raising, door-slamming, seat-bouncing, wheel-turning time of it at your Chevrolet dealer's.

See five entirely different lines of cars at your Chevrolet Showroom — CHEVROLET, CHEVELLE, CHEVY II, CORVAIR & CORVETTE Be sure to see Bonanza on the CBC-TV network each Sunday. Check your local listing for channel and time.

RARE, MEDIUM, WELL-DONE

By GEO. H. CARVER, Sports Editor

I don't know whether Bill Bittle of the Tweed Dis-rict, Department of Lands and Forests, has supirations to become president of some women's organization, but if he has, he did a great bit of campaigning the other day.

Bill, with tongue-in-cheek, inadvertently tipped off the little women, those patient creatures who "keep store" while the old man goes deer hunting or holidays under that guise.

Bill suggests with his tongue in the other check that next season, due to the disappointing deer harvest of the current hunt, that the men stay at home and the the spouse do the forest safaris for the clusive bucks.

Bill figures there would be more bucks in the deep eeze and more bucks in the family exchequer if the milty Dianas were permitted to take to the woods at leave the mere males at home to do the washing, and the kids to school, cook the meals and make the

He calls luckless bucks, who found themselves victims of a hunter bullet 'dear deers.' He whispers out loud so hunters, 'Don't tell the little woman but that vention steak you had likely cost somewhere between $2.00 and $4.00 a pound, not to mention time off woman and countless cheeres left undone around the home."

Says he:—"That's the way it is among the hunter clan-althought some women could do much better if they went and kept the men at home. There would be less contam-inated water troubles and consequently less costs involved. There would be less aleeping during the hunt and no wan-dering off the watch—fear would look after that."

"Perhaps," Bill suggests, "there could be a server for 'Women Only," but he hastily adds for "deer-huning, that is."

Let's see. Some 40,000 hunters roamed the forest trails, or stayed in cabin, resort, and cottage this season.

Take half that number as "buck huntresses." imagine the impact on supermarkets, hatshops, furriers, thurch choirs, beauty parlors, wig-making emporiums, sometic counters, butcher thops, the corner groceries, bingos, bridge clubs, and wherever women gather.

I snoke to a veteran hunter about the idea.

"Hell," he morted, "let 'em go. I don't know of a better way to maintain the deer population. If my wife went out on a runway and heard a hoot owt, she wouldn't stop until she reached home. A few women I know are good hunters, but the greater majority wouldn't

Another said: "No, definitely no. My wife doesn't know which end of a gun the builet comes from. And if she became expert in the handling of a weapon what chance would I have if I came home some night looking like a worn-out buck."

In agaious vein, Mr. Bittle said the deer harvest ce tainly want' as good as last year. The first week with its rain caused the success rate to drop by approximatel eight percent. The second week want much better. Mi weather prevailed and of course there were less buste in the woods to rout the deer from protective awamps.

He said 1,140 hunters checked in at Eldorado a Northbrook, with total of 187 deer, a success rate nearly 16.5 per cent.

The overall success for the two weeks was less than its per cent," said Mr. Bittle. "That's less than one deer for every five hunters. A hundred pounds in meat divided into five at an average expense of $50, to Goodtime Charile for his week in the woods makes expensive meat the chomped on."

October was quite a month For the 26th consecutive month Rambler sales increased-October up 58% over last year

The reason for Rambler's growing popularity is enough. Attention to detail quality is now demanded by more and more Canadian motorists.

mts of the delightful art of espi thed forward in their chairs, about a week when the Russians arrested a Yale profes-Frederick Barghoorn, as a spy. The pro-or had been on the U.S. diplomatic staff in Moscow years ago, but he was travelling as scholar when he was arrested. His arrest oked like the beginning of a good story.

looked like the beginning of a good story.

But the story didn't develop along classical lines. The U.S. government protested and stopped a cultural exchange mission which was about to go to Russia. President Kennedy released a stronger-than-usual statement and everybody started talking about how the Russian accest police are unfast to schelars. Shocked by the reaction, the Russians released the more present and statement and sor and sent him home.

professor and earth him home professor and earth him home professor and so the anasteur agent. When a real solution, to the anasteur agent. When a real knowledge of him; according to the rules of the game, and the agent goal grin-lipped to the wall. If he can arrange to stand on a trap door over a secret undergound garage while the firing squad marches up, his government will have a fast car waiting in the game, but official and is taboo. In the case and the standard of the standard of the case and the standard of the case and the standard of the stand sumed the professor was really innocent. Like the man who kicked a cat, and heard it say "bow wow."

So much for the known facts. The prob-m now for the afficionado is to analyze seem. It is quite possible, of course, that arghoorn was innocent, that events went exhargheon was knocens, that events went re-selfy as sproted by the US, government after his return, and that all, subsequent moves were according to the rules of the game. It is also possible, however, that Barghoorn was a master spy of such importance that, the US, government choes to auspend the rules to get him back. If there were assignion, for ex-ample, that the Russian counter esplonage upy might have been assigned no fine, a jumies of papers in his hands on a Mocow street, thus getting both himself and Barghoorn arrested, but arrested on a charge on which Barghoorn would be released.

A Poor Show!

William Porter, secretary of the Gore Bay branch of the Canadian Legion, says that the branch has closed down the sale of beer from a soft-drink 'vending machine.

The branch, he adds, is prepared to abide by decision of the Ontario Liquor Licence Board.

Jolly sporting of it!

Mr. Porter says that the illegal sale of beer has gone on with the full knowledge of the Gore Bay police chief, provincial police, Gore Bay council and the Legion executive.

He seems to believe that, in some strange manner, this exonerates everybody from any selling beer illegally.

The Gore Bay council might not be stretching a point too far if it maintained that the liquor laws and their enforcement are really none of its business.

But nobody can condene the alleged connivance of police in this law-breaking. The police have no more right to retrain from enforcing an existing law than they have to endeavor to prevent conduct not prohibited by any

"We need closer Relationship with present Industry --"

The backbone of our present municipal economy is existing industry, and with this realization City Council and our industrial commission should endeavor to develop a closer understanding with our industries. Closer relationship between these bodies would give Belleville first hand knowledge of proposed expansion schemes and, armed with these and other facts, we can better compete in the ever-growing market of industrial development.

Our present industry can also be our best salesmen when visiting industrialists look to Belleville as a possible location. We must therefore establish a plan that will bring both Council and industrial management together for mutual benefit and understanding.

DEAR DESPERATE - Is it done in fun or fury? So DEAR DESPERATE — is it done in Iun or fury? Some people think it's funny to tease someone who can't hit back. Your mother couldn't possibly know how this troubles you or ske'd get him to stop. Make a big effort to open up with her, some time when you two are alone.

DEAR DORIS — Do you think low-cut dresses and high beels prove maturity? And what about heavy make-up? I think it just proves girls are still children and enjoy looking like clowns. — DISGUSTED MALE.

DEAR DISGUSTED — Right! Psychologists say that pr mature attempts at worldiness show a girl just inn't ready to be an adult. This goes for too-tight, too-bort aktrix, plungin necklines, dyed or bleached hair, orange fingernalls. A intinitum.

DEAR DORIS — I've always had nice nails and hands an erever thought anything about it. Everywhere I go people look a my nails and axis me "Are they real? What lovely nails?" My had not list me I should have my hands on TV, holding products. Now my problem is, how does one start? I would appreciat any information you could give me about whom to contact.— NICE HANDS.

DEAR NICE HANDS — Lovely hands can be expressive a warm personality — If you make them so. Once in a while a photographer looks for nice hands and gernalls to hold or handle some item he is photographing Once in a whole a handle some item he is photographin fingernalls to hold or handle some item he is photographin Visit one or two photographers, or a TV station, or a commercial art firm, and ask.

It won't be a Brebdignagian repast with "Miss St pertest III" turkey as the main entree but a Lilliputian smoreashord featuring seven-litre speeds

Word from the Canadian Boating Federation via Bob Finlayson, director-secretary has it that Canada may accept the United States Harmsworth challenge, providing—and

The simple facts are Canada has not got an un-limited hydroplane craft to defend her title under the existing rules. The United States has a dozen champ-ing at the bit.

Finlayson says in an article that two years' search y the Federation failed to interest any individual Can-alian, syndicate or company to build and campaiga an alimited class hydroplane in defence of the trophy.

After Bobby Hayward won the Harmsworth and suc-cessfully defended it at Picton in 1960 and 1961, the United States declined to 18sue a challenge because they had no power plants that could match the incomparable Rolli-Boyce engine. '(Under the Cup Rolles power plants must be manufactured in the challenging or defending country.)

manuactured in the chaireging or detection country. Rather than all et the competition else, Canada has seene up with a suggestion that the Harmworth Racing nelse be changed as far as racing craft are concerned. Canada, Finkyson says, will defend with up for drive seven-life boats. These, he said, are much manifer than the big unlimiteds but "these we have one, or will have, in racing time by next summer."

Finlayson thinks a revitalized Harmaworth competing could be the result of limiting the contenders to a titre power plant. He points out that interest in the perica's Cup was revived after when the size of craft a reduced to 12-meter.

If the United States accepts the suggestion and the Rule Board agrees, the Harmsworth with seven-litres would be no logisided competition. For Canada has several of these boats, in fact one that defeated all competition in the U.S. National Championships.

These mighty mites which tous physether wheels instead of lacy arcing resoster-tails like their hig hydro-siders, me powered with supercharged or measurer-charged motors of 457-161 cubic inches—a power plant light is used extensively in this country's and other countries' automobiles. It is readily available to all ors of axi-is; cante meres—a power plan if extensively in this country's and other utomobiles. It is readily available to all Minimum overall size of the hull is 19

Finlayson quotes Charles Speers, Windsor, head of the Federations, international committee, as saying: "Any contest between hydros and seven-liters is a David and Gollath competition. If we have to lose the Harmsworth hyadefault then we may as well go down fighting, even desperately, on the race course."

If the suggestion meets the approval of all concerned and stands an excellent chance of retaining the coveter

Her seven-lite "Miss Superiest" is the "Royal Canadiant", driven by one of our top drivers, Art Ashie circles. He dreve his nighty miss to victory in the U.S. Valional and broke two world records in the doing. He created Feem in the competition must at 30 mph over a 1½ mile course and the straightisway for the kilo distance at 150 mph.

Asbury, who comes from Ox Tongue Lake, Ont., and owner Aubert Brilliant of Rimouski. Quebee, have shown than Canada can hold its own in Harmsworth competition if the rules were modified and if the Americans graciously consent to compete next year with a team of three from their large roster of seven-live hydroplanes.

So perhaps as early as next year the misty spirit of Bobby Hayward will look down from the tree-bord reed shyline of the Hayward Long Reach in Prince Edward and watch reasonable facsimiles of the mighty-superiest. Gefend the title and tropby he spatched from the Americans in 1959 on the very waters that took his life.

Winning the Harmsworth for Canada was Bobby's finest hour. Perhaps a trifle anti-climactic was his suc-cessful defences of the coveted mug in 1960 and 1961 when he tossed more or less eatily aside the challenges of American craft.

Personality and the President Just a few years ago one of the world's great powers, the Soviet Union, was shrugging off the snakeskin of "the cult of personality."

For over a quarter of a century, Russia's policies had reflected, in minute detail, the hopes, fears, cravings, animosities, prejudices convictions, knowledge and ignorance of one man, Josef Stalin

This was true in spite of the fact that, in theory, these policies were drafted by a party whose every member had an equal voice in determining policy initially.

Virtually alone amongst the great nations of the moderen world, the United States in theory gives great personal power to one man, the sident

Whether he wields this power depends in part on political conditions but also, in very large measure, on the personality of the man who occupies the office of president.

John F. Kennedy was a "strong" president, one of those men not afraid to make their own one of those men not afraid to make their own decisions. He did not permit the legislative pow-er of Congress to hamper him in the discharge of the executive powers which, according to the constitution of the land, belonged to him and him alone.

The new President, Lyndon Johnson, is a child of Congress, in almost the same sense that Winston Churchill was a child of the House of without Churchill was a cline of the nouse of Commons. He has spent many years manipulat-ing the complex combinations, largely uncontrol-led by party affiliations, which make action on any comprehensive legislature program so difficult in the II S ficult in the U.S.

But, in spite of this, there is every reason to expect that he, like Kennedy, will want to exercise to the full the executive powers which

The difference between the Kennedy and the Johnson administrations will thus be the difference between the Kennedy and Johnson personalities -

Of the two, Johnson, in background, training and habit, is much the truer representative of his country.

Kennedy was a rich man, the son of a rich man, an aristocrat by circumstance, upbringing and taste. Johnson has come from the main-spring of American life. from the middle class to his place amongst the seats of the mighty.

It seems likely he will have brought with him not only the virtues of the American people, but their defects, too. He is likely to prove a man of strong convictions. So was his predecessor, but Kennedy had a sophisticated man's realization that the American way of life is only one amongst many methods of living in to amongst many metnous of living in rodays world. Johnson may well prove more unyielding, in precisely those areas where the only hope of eventual victory is to accept temporary defeat. That Johnson's ultimate objectives vary but

Jatal Johnson's ultimate objectives vary but little from those which Kennedy cherished ap-pears likely. That he will utilize precisely the same-methods in his struggle to achieve these objectives is unlikely. For a time the Johnsonian' touch will be overlaid, perhaps almost hidden? beneath the influence of the Kennedy-picked cabinet. But seventually, we may be sure Johns. cabinet. But eventually, we may be sure, Johnson will replace these men, whose habits of mind probably make the men, whose habits of mind probably make the men and the fall outline of the difference-between a Kennedy administration, cool, clear-thinking, ruthless when necessary, patiently steadfast and steadfastly patient, and a Johnson administration administration, and a johnson administration that the men and the men son will replace these men, whose habits of mind

We are spending money we haven't got on people we don't know to impress people who hate our guts.—U.S. Congressman Frank Chelp, commenting on President Kennedy's request of $4.900 million for foreign aid.

A fire of unknown origin de-stroyed a large frame house in Halloway Wednesday night. The Believille City Fire De-partment received the alarm at 8.41 p.m. and firemen renained at the scene until after 11.00 p.m.

The house owned by the late
Mr. and Mrs. Jessie Abrams Mr. and Mrs. Jesie Abrams was vacant at the time and had been since early summer. Two pumpers were sent to the scene, but were unable to save the building as the wrood of the house was very dry and had a head start before the fire department was summoned. Fire Chief Gerald Vance said children were suspected of set ling the house affre.

Invite You to See and Hear THE REMARKABLE NEW CLAIRTON STEREOPHONIC CONSOLES

THURSDAY, FRIDAY & SATURDAY - NOV. 28th, 29th, 30th.

CLAIRTONE CREATES TUBELESS SYSTEM TO BANISH HEAT DETERIORATION. RESULT: ASTONISHING FIVE-YEAR GUARANTEE.

The Achilles heel of the stereo set has always been its glow-ing tubes. They heat up, gradually cook out the circuits, crystalize the solder—and eventually burn themselves out.

Clairtone's solution is simple and dramatic. Eliminate the tubes. Old glass radio tubes are replaced by a modern completely solid state system, as reliable as the components used in missile control systems and electronic comments. In Clairtone sets there are no glowing filaments. Result: Clairtone stop there are no glowing filaments. Result: Clairtone now guarantees all solid state parts for an aeroniching fire years.

Now you can hear recorded music undistorted, pure and true — not only at high volume, but at a whisper, too.

CLAIRTONE has created a high fidelity instrument with good living room manners. No longer need high fidelity music be played at glass-shattering volume.

Slipply press the remarkable new low level fidelity button and music can be reduced to a polite murmur—without sacrificing the authoritative bass or the tinkly high notes. An enthusiast's dream—and Clairtone's contribution to marital harmony.

Your Clairtone can be two, or even three, sets in one. Reason: Versatile

The Clairtone keyboard is composed of individually lighted rocker keys. Why? One reason is simplicity—the keys take the frightening mystique out of stere. Another important reason: you can engage several keys simultaneously. Your Clairtone can be two, or even three sets in one.

If you choose a CLAIRTONE television model, you can enjoy TV in your living room, pipe recorded music to the rec. room and radio music to the kitchen. All at once. ANOTHER ADVANTAGE: Plug in a tape recorder or TV set to your CLAIRTONE, press a key—and enjoy pure sounding through the high fidelity speakers.

Rocker Keys, easy to operate.

EXAMPLES: You can play records in one room and relay AM or FM music to another at the same time.

In the past four years our city has developed on a state of uncertainty and non-confidence are community of stable administration indidence has been completely restored and of this is due to the sound administration und our City Manager form of government. I have supported this from its implied and will continue to do so.

I believe I have played my part in restoring this confidence and since our present mayor is retiring tropy office, it has been suggested that I am the best person to continue to lead our stable government.

"Belleville's Hope For the Future Lies in NEW Industry"

We in Belleville live in a city that is strategically located for industry. We in Believille live in a city that is strategically located for industry. We are approximately 1½ hours, by one of the world's finest highways and mainline railways away from the largest single industrial development in Canada, Toronto—and yet with their inportant attributes we remain without any new industry. The following are facts which have been proved in a recent survey:

An Industry Employing 100 Workers Means to Believille:---

- 427 NEW PEOPLE
- 131 MORE HOUSEHOLDS
- 187 MORE CAR REGISTRATIONS
- 117 MORE WORKERS EMPLOYED Other than Manufacturing
- $939,000 MORE RETAIL SALES PER YEAR

Consider this also — that our largest outlay of taxes is spent on education. Our young people are leaving school and are finding it increasingly difficult to find employment here in Believille. Subsequently, they are forced to move to the fast-growing industrial areas such as Toronto, Oshawa and Peterborough, etc. We must put a stop to this and ensure our children, and our children's children a future here in Belleville.

WE NEED A FRESH APPROACH TO THE PROBLEM OF LOCATING NEW INDUSTRY HERE IN THIS CITY.

Sport Slices ...

RARE, MEDIUM, WELL-DONE

By GEO. H. CARVER, Sports Editor

With recent past events exemplifying that we live in a fast-moving world of anything-can-happen, don't be surprised to see in the near future some startling changes in the sports calendar-

Take deer hunting. It is not beyond the realm of ossibility that in the near future the forest floors of orth Hastings will echo to the "tally-ho" of the hunter, to "tantivy" of hunting horn, baying of hounds and the 6 "Luttivy" of hunting horn, baying of blunds and if himles of sleek rose-country equines.

Egad, it could be Don McNevin, popular dairy manhanier-hornenun-framer, set a precedent this session that could ultimately result in red-counted, boated and-spurred hunter, strirup cappe, hunt breakfast, and help early-moserning toddies cuitide hunting lodge, cahin, cotting and result.

For the butter-making sportsman sat astride epper," a member of his stable of 22 quarter horses, a a small knoll near Millbridge, and calmly shot a dog-assed dee and fawn from the lotty eminence of an

"Pepper," a handsome strawherry rean, just past ree, never batted a horse-hair as the rifle cracked rice, scant inches from her head.

She stood frozen like a warhorse statue. Then she ly switched her tail at imaginary flies, yawned and in-sted with a half-turn that it was time for her mid-raing hay and oats.

It is the first time, Lands and Forests officials tell, that live vention has been shot from the hurricane th of a deer-hunting Dobbin. And, they add, there's law against in.

And what's more, "Pepper", it acems, is endowed with an extra equine sense. Seconds before the deer broke into view and before her rider heard them, she pricked up her ears, looked straight shead and whin-nied in horse-talk "They're coming, boss."

But later her pride was hurt. She doesn't mind noting the master of the hunt into deer-questing action, doing pack duty is another thing. That kind of work for mules, not well-bred quarter horses.

In fact "Pepper" and a stable mate "Goldie" packed thirteen deer shot by the McNevin party of eight aut of the woods. "What this gay McNevin needs," tested the steeds, "is a forty-mule team."

That was bad enough. But adding insult to injury, to speak, was the fact "Pepper and Goldie" lugged out carcasses of two large bear shot by the party.

They protested. The odor of a dead bear is not exactly Chanel Number Five and even a horse has its pride. They snowled, pranced, and did an equine version of the twist before consenting to become pall-bearers to a pair of brain corpose.

I don't know whether one of Don's male forebears a cavalry colonel, but he admits "I've always had a to shoot a deer from a horse's back.

He braced himself or whose he had been been a supply the sea of the search tree-he had been a supply the search tree-he had been a supply heist into a tree-dop and was surprised to find himself in one piece.

For "Pepper" never moved. He fired two or more sheds to make sure. The strawberry rean never budget merity switched the tail as if to say, "Is this gay Mc-Nevin a nut!" Docen't he know one of my ancestors was with Castler at the Little Big Hern?"

"Pepper" is a touchy equine youngster. Last year the party left her tied to a tree. She had been brought along for "pack-drill." Her pride was hurt for the first time so the broke away and galloped off. They found her later about eight miles away.

Do you think that we can afford still greater taxes? • Have you noticed that with your new assessment that there is a three-fold increase? Nothing to be concerned about they tell us at City Hall.— because the mill rate will only be about 30 whereas now it is about 91. You very well know the next step — AN INCREASE! The council will feel that a small increase surely will not matter. The luxuries must wait. I am opposed to higher taxes: • Let us for a change vote "NO" to huge expenditures.

Volkswagen, of course, is in one sense a deceptive misnomer. Far from being a "people's car," its unvarying style eliminates the only advantage man holds over machines.

Flexible Approach

Word comes from London, via the Asso-clated Press, that Salvation Army units over there will exchange their tambourines for electric guitars. "The whole Church of Christ must speak to our own day and our own time," comments Gen. Frederick Coutts, who took comcomments Gen. RARE, MEDIUM, WELL-DONE

By GEO. H. CARVER, Sports Editor

They've had two days of susshine out Vancouver way and the faithful from the optimistic side of the Rockies with a heterogeneous collection of football fanalties from other parts of the country had hopes for a "dry" field for the cup classic Saturday.

That is until Ole Jupe Pluvius via his we man communications system warned that he would warm light tears game day, with the suggestion the Pacific flood tide would reach the Lious? 33 line approximately three e'clock.

A six inch depth of warm, sticky goo on the field would perhaps force the Hamilton Tigers to don diver fins, while the allegedly web-footed Liens would be slowed down

The must pack, in turn, would cause the anti-cipated duel between the two rival top linemes Angelo Mosen of the Tigers and Toon Brown of the Lions into a toc-to-toe singlest: Footwork would be impossible.

The selection of Brown over Mosca as top linears of the year has caused a mild farore among lababitant of Jungletown, forty miles west of Toronto, not to men the slight volcanic cruptions in the camp of the Cats.

Raiph Sazio, coach of the Bengals, rose in his perhaps righteous wrath after he learned that Brown had been given the nod over Mosca for the honor.

It was reported in Toronto that Sario, who at that time did not know about the selection, said, "It would be a crying shame if Mosca did not get the award because he had as great a season as any football player could have."

"He played two-way for me in seven games, aver-ag over 50 minutes a game. If he doesn't win it, i got to blame the extern writers who make the he for costing him something he richly deserves,"

Sanio said eastern writers do not stick together like they do out west and their votes are probably directed systems him because he played on Ottawa and Montreal teams as well as Hamilton.

Some of these writers have been brainwashed or have a personal animosity against him. It would shame if the award west to anybody eise," said

If partisanship is going to be a factor in the se-lection of All-Canada football players, as it apparently was in this case, then perhaps an award for both east-ern and western conferences would be in order, then appoint a panel of unbiased observers to select the all-Canada winner.

It is reported that Mosca is not too pleased with the selection of Brown as the top lineman and without a doubt he will be out to prove the reflectors are wrong when the Lions and Tigers crash in the Grey Cup Circui on Sturrday.

So you television fifty-yarders had better keep an ope eached on the pair when you can tear your eyes away from Falony and Joe Kapp. I don't think there is any personal animosity between Moora and Brown, but I'd hate to have Moora staring me in the eye if I were a Lion's hall-carrier.

And don't think for a minute this Tom Br any shrinking violet. He is one of the best i players in Canada and has proved it by his se even if it is tinged with some eastern parthansi

As one-assiern football observer puts it, "I do not mean disparage his selection but in the games he has played which I have seen the Lions this year he hasn't as-med the stature of Morca."

Many of you are concerned, I am sure, about what will happen to next year's taxes now that there has been a general reassessment on all properties in Belleville, We are told that the mill rate will drop accordingly. But an increase of even one mill in the new structure will have an effect three times greater than it had before. Expenditures are climbing at an alarming rate. Taxpayers are being burdened as never before. Tenants are faced with higher rents. It is time to cut out the frills.

The gaze hand for the feet of t We know of no other whisky at any price, that can equal the pleasant, good clean taste of Corby's true Canadian whiskies

Taste, and taste alone, is the real test of true Canadian whisky. It must be light, clean and pleasantly palatable, without a hint or trace of the flavour of any other type of whisky. That's what we mean by true Canadian whisky and that's exactly what you get when you "Say Corby's". It's a whisky that is good company tonight and a pleasant memory tomorrow. It could well be the whisky to suit your taste. At least you should try it and compare it with other whiskies. Why not tonight? We can promise you an evening in good taste.

Mrs. J. McCormick, 16 Reid Street, Belleville.

By RUSSELL PEDEN and TED BLACKMAN

STE. THERESE de BLANVILLE, Que. (CP) — Scores of mud-aked police and others worked tirelessly amfid death and destruction as a rainy, grey dawn broke today over the Eaurentian countryside where a Trans-Canada Air Lines DC-8F jet dived into the ground and carried 118 persons to a flery death.

Hastily erected lights still gave an eerie aspect—pieces of human bodies, half-ried personal belongings and shattered bits of what had been a sleek airliner. There were no survivors of TCA's ill-fated flight No. 831, which took off from ntreal's Dorval Airport for Toronto at 6:28 p.m. Friday and four minutes later wed into a virtual quagmire near this town 20 miles north of Montreal.

The dead numbered 111 passengers and seven crew members. There were 70 from the Toronto area, 22 from other Ontario centres, 17 from the Greater Montreal area, five from Western Canada, one from New Brunswick, one from Brooklyn, N.Y., one believed from Port Washington, N.Y., and one whose next-of-kin address was listed as Bombay, India.

There is no question but that the city needs more industries. There is also no question but—that the ability to provide a suitable serviced site might be the decisive factor in getting a new industry to locate here. There can be no assurance that the provision of such sites will automatically assure us of acquiring new indus-tries, although there are indications that firms are becoming increasingly aware of the disadvantages of over-centralization in what has been turned Ontario's "Golden Horseshoe," from Oshawa to St. Catharines.

All that can be said is that without the authorization of such expenditure even the most energetic industrial commission could find its task frustrating; that it is reasonable to suppose the initial expenditures might be reits task frustrating; that it is resonance suppose the intillal expenditures might be re-latively small, untill some positive results were obtained; that the availability of such a fund could enable the city to take quick advantage of any bargains in industrial land; and that, and that, and the could be compared to the could be could

"Keep Going Forward in Belleville" Elect IRELAND MAY

Progressive, efficient administration by City Council and Civic authorities over the past 4 years has placed the City of Belleville in a solid position and gained the respect of all. Give Ireland your vote and support in continuing this march ahead.

GROWH:

During the past four years, our city has developed from a state of uncertainty and non-confidence into a growing community of stable confidence into a growing community of stable confidence into a growing community of stable completely restored. Much of this is due to the sound administration which has been built around our City Manager form of government, to confidence the confidence of the confi

Don't be led astray by critics who tell you Belleville is not a growing city. Sometimes some of our citizens may be disappointed at the lack of large factories, but Belleville's location and natural resources do attract commercial enter-

COMMERCIAL CENTRE . .

An example is the Ontario Cheese Producers, who have a large addition under construc-tion. This business has made Belleville the centre of the cheese industry. We are a transporta-tion, educational, medical, and religious centre; a city of doctors, lawyers, chiropractors, veterinarians; people come to our city for a variety of services. What can a Mayor, with Council, do to enlarge this commercial activity, in turn improving employment, which seems to be one of the main objectives of all levels of government

First of all, the confidence now established must be maintained. Then we must make it easy, pleasant and interesting for people to come to Belleville, be in Belleville, and do business in Belleville, and this applies to tourists as well.

INDUSTRIAL DEVELOPMENT ..

Ever since joining council, I have been interested in industrial development. I have served on the Industrial Commission ever since, and have been chairman for the past two years. This is the most difficult of all the city's commissions, boards, or committees on which to serve. oracles, or commerces on which to serve. We are always dealing with intangibles, there are elected and appointed members, changing yearly. Everyone has a different idea of how to attract industry. Our experiences in Believille have

What yardstick do you use to measure results of new industries? The Provincial Department of Industry and Development states that any town similar to Belleville which can secure one new industry, employing ten or more people, once every four years is doing well. The small industries of today are the higger industries of tomorrow. During my term in council the following industries were located:
Amplifone Canada Ltd., new plant on Dussek St. em-

THE REASONABLE FACTS

A PERSONAL benefit for the single citizens in this city without WINTER MONTHS make these I even more significant. NO INTERFERENCE whatsover with the traditional observances of our community.

The many comfort advantages of electric heating are setting a new trend in home buying

THOUSANDS of Ontario home ov THOUSANDS of Ontario home owners now have electri-heating and latest estimates indicate that this numbe will have increased almost fire times by 1965. Many peopl are saying that any home without the comfort advantage of electric heating will be out of date in a few years.

Only electric heating gives you custom-comfort. You can dial exactly and precisely the temperature you want for any room in the house. That's because electric heating offers you a thermostat in every room. To make one room warmer you don't have to overheat the entire house.

Electric heat is gentle and constant. There are no cold spots in the house or uncomfortable blasts of hot air.

You'll never be disturbed by noises. Electric heating is the quietest heating system there is. And there's such a healthful

You get more living space. Became electric besting doesn't need a furnace you have extra living area in the basement.

ELECTRIC HEATING GIVES YOU A CHOICE OF HEATING SYSTEMS

Electric baseboard heating fits anug along wills at baseboard sized. Insulated electric heating cable is hidden in the ceiling or below the floor. And there are other units, some that flush mount in ceilings or walls.

REDUCED OPERATING COSTS

In many municipalities the rate for electric heating has been reduced as much as 30%, during the lest two years. This means that in some places it costs less to heat a home electrically than it does with other systems. In other places, the cost is about the same. In the few areas where rates are still slightly higher, the difference is negligible compared to the extra value electric heating gives you.

LOW INSTALLATION COSTA

Electric heating is much less complicated than other sys-tems and is much easier to install. No furnace or fuel tank is needed. An extension to your wiring system is all that is Any home with electric heating should be built to Hydro standards of insulation. And with electric heating there are no annual maintenance costs!

GUARANTEED INSTALLATION

Choose an electric heating contractor who is qualified to back his work with the industry recognized Triple Scall of Quality guarantee. This guarantee covers both equipment and installation.

THE LONG-TERM ECONOMY OF ELECTRIC HEATING PROVES THAT IF YOU ARE BUILDING OR BUYING A NEW HOME, WHATEVER THE SIZE, THERE IS NO REASON WHY YOU SHOULD SETTLE FOR ANYTHING LESS THAN THE CUSTOM-COMFORT, CLEANLINESS AND SAFETY OF THE HEATING SYSTEM THAT IS REVOLUTIONIZING MODERN LIVING.

For more information and estimates, contact your qualified electric heating contractor or your local Hydro office.

ABOUT YOUR TAXES -ABOUT YOUR RENT.

• Do you think that we can afford still greater taxes?

Have you noticed that with your new assessment that there is a three-fold increase?

Nothing to be concerned about they tell us at City Hall — because the mill rate will only be about 30 whereas now it is about 91.

You very well know the next step — AN INCREASE! The council will feel that a small increase surely will not matter.

The luxuries must wait. I am opposed to higher taxes! Let us for a change vote "NO" to huge expenditures

DO YOU RENT?

To The People of Belleville:

On Monday, December 2nd, you will be asked to select a Mayor for Belleville.

In the past five days I have presented to you a detailed outline of the program of action which I pledge to undertake if elected Mayor.

ACTIVE PROMOTION OF NEW INDUSTRY
CLOSER RELATIONSHIP WITH PRESENT INDUSTRY

ACCELERATED TOURIST PROMOTION PROGRAM

HOLD THE LINE ON MAJOR TAX SPENDING

I believe that a program such as this is necessary for the economic growth of our City. I pledge to you that if elected mayor of Belleville I will give freely of my time and energy to ensure that our City has an administration actively engaged in the effective promotion of economic and industrial expansion.

1 respectfully request that on Monday, December 2nd, you vote Jack Ellis for Mayor.

Yours very truly,

Jack Ellis
